

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28
FILED
CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT
JAN 23 2015
COURT OF APPEALS
CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
BY DEPUTYUNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

Gerald Allen Harper,

Petitioner,

v.

James Tilton, et al.

Respondents.

CASE NO. CV 06-01190-GHK

Order Denying Certificate of Appealability

On October 21, 2014, we denied Petitioner's Request for an Evidentiary Hearing. [Dkt. 80.] On October 31, 2014, Petitioner submitted an Application for Certificate of Appealability from District Court. [Dkt. 82.] Petitioner has not made a substantial showing that his rights were denied or that reasonable jurists would have resolved this issue differently. See Slack v. McDaniel, 529 U.S. 473, 484 (2000); see also Barefoot v. Estelle, 463 U.S. 880, 893 (1983), superseded by statute on other grounds. Therefore, we DENY Petitioner's Application.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED: January 23, 2015

GEORGE H. KING
United States District Judge¹

¹ Chief United States District Judge for the Central District of California sitting by designation.