IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

CHARLES CHATMAN,

Plaintiff,

No. CIV S-06-2912 LKK EFB P

vs.

TOM FELKER, Warden, et al.,

Defendants.

ORDER AND ORDER DIRECTING SERVICE
BY THE UNITED STATES MARSHAL
WITHOUT PREPAYMENT OF COSTS

Plaintiff is a prisoner without counsel seeking relief for alleged civil rights violations. See 42 U.S.C. § 1983. He proceeds in forma pauperis. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915. On April 29, 2009, the court determined that plaintiff’s amended complaint states a cognizable claim for relief against defendants Amero, Avila , Cox, Dillard, Felker, Gordon, Guimond, Harvey, Houghland, James, Keating, Koenig, Laguna, McDonald, Park, Perez, Patton, Pfadt, Roche, Ross, Stiles and Rath¹, and ordered plaintiff to provide a completed summons, sufficient copies of the amended complaint for service, information for service of process on form USM-285, and a notice of compliance. Plaintiff has filed the required papers.

¹Defendant Rath was included for service with the order filed on June 10, 2009.

1 Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

2 1. The Clerk of the Court is directed to forward the instructions for service of process,
3 the completed summons, copies of the April 18, 2009, amended complaint, copies of the form
4 Consent to Proceed Before a United States Magistrate Judge, and copies of this order to the 5 United States Marshal.

6 2. Within ten days from the date of this order, the United States Marshal shall notify 7 defendants Amero, Avila , Cox, Dillard, Felker, Gordon, Guimond, Harvey, Houghland, James,
8 Keating, Koenig, Laguna, McDonald, Park, Perez, Patton, Pfadt, Roche, Ross, Stiles and Rath
9 of the commencement of this action and request a waiver of service of summons in accordance 10 with the provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(d) and 28 U.S.C. § 566(c).

11 3. The United States Marshal shall retain the sealed summons and a copy of the amended
12 complaint in their file for future use.

13 4. The United States Marshal shall file returned waivers of service of summons and 14 requests for waivers that are returned as undelivered promptly upon their receipt.

15 5. If a defendant fails to return a waiver of service of summons within 60 days from the 16 date the request is mailed, the United States Marshal shall:

17 a. Personally serve process and a copy of this order upon the defendant, see Fed.
18 R. Civ. P. 4, 28 U.S.C. § 566(c), and command all necessary assistance from the 19 California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR) to execute this 20 order, while maintaining the confidentiality of all information provided.

21 b. File, within ten days after effecting personal service, the return of service with 22 evidence of any attempts to secure a waiver of service of summons and of the 23 costs incurred in effecting service. Such costs shall be enumerated on the USM-
24 285 form and shall include any costs the Marshal's office incurs for photocopying
25 additional copies of the summons and amended complaint and for preparing new 26 USM-285 forms. Costs of service will be taxed against the personally served

1 defendant. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(d)(2).

2 6. Defendants shall reply to the amended complaint within the time provided in Fed. R.
3 Civ. P. 12(a).

4 7. Unless otherwise ordered, all motions to dismiss, motions for summary judgment,
5 discovery motions, and motions made under the authority of Fed. R. Civ. P. 7, 11, 12, 15, 41, 55,
6 56, 59 and 60, and L.R. 11-110 shall be briefed in accordance with L. R. 78-230(m). Failure
7 timely to file an opposition or statement of no opposition to a motion may be deemed a waiver of 8 opposition to the motion and may result in the imposition of sanctions. L. R. 78-230(m).
9 Opposition to all other motions need be filed only as directed by the court.

10 8. If plaintiff is released from prison while this case is pending, any party may request
11 application of the other provisions of L. R. 78-230 in lieu of L. R. 78-230(m). Until such a 12 motion is granted, L. R. 78-230(m) will remain in effect regardless of plaintiff's custodial status.
13 See L.R. 1-102(d).

14 9. As required by the appellate court in Wyatt v. Terhune, 315 F.3d 1108, 1120 n.14 (9th
15 Cir. 2003), the court hereby informs plaintiff of the following with respect to opposing a motion
16 to dismiss and/or for summary judgment for failure to exhaust available administrative remedies.
17 Such a motion is a request that the court dismiss without prejudice any unexhausted claims. The 18 moving party may submit affidavits or declarations under penalty of perjury and admissible
19 documents in support of its motion. Plaintiff may file declarations under penalty of perjury and 20 admissible documents in support of his opposition. Plaintiff may rely on his own statements
21 made under penalty of perjury in the complaint if the complaint shows that he has personal 22 knowledge of the matters stated, and plaintiff specifies the parts of the complaint on which he 23 relies. Affidavits or declarations must be sworn to by persons who have personal knowledge of 24 relevant matters. If plaintiff seeks to rely on written records, he must prove that the records are 25 what he asserts them to be. If plaintiff fails to contradict defendant's evidence with admissible
26 evidence, the court may rely on defendant's evidence. If plaintiff does not file a written

1 opposition to the motion, the court may consider the failure to act as a waiver of opposition to
2 the motion. See L.R. 78-230(m). If the court grants defendant's motion, the unexhausted claims
3 will be dismissed without prejudice.

4 10. As required by the appellate court in Rand v. Rowland, 154 F.3d 952, 957 (9th Cir.
5 1998) (en banc), cert. denied, 527 U.S. 1035 (1999), and Klinge v. Eikenberry, 849 F.2d 409,
6 411-412 (9th Cir. 1988), the court informs plaintiff of the following with respect to opposing a
7 motion for summary judgment under Fed. R. Civ. P. 56: Such a motion is a request that the 8 court grant judgment in defendants' favor without trial. A motion for summary judgment will 9 set forth the facts that defendants assert are not reasonably subject to dispute and that entitle
10 them to judgment under applicable law. To oppose a motion for summary judgment, plaintiff
11 must show proof of his claims. To do this, he may rely upon statements made in the complaint
12 under penalty of perjury if the complaint shows that plaintiff has personal knowledge of the 13 matters stated and plaintiff specifies the parts of the complaint upon which he relies. Plaintiff
14 also may file one or more affidavits or declarations setting forth the facts that plaintiff believes
15 prove his claims, as long as the person who signs it has personal knowledge of the facts stated.
16 Plaintiff may rely on written records, but he must prove they are what he asserts them to be.
17 Plaintiff may rely on all or any part of responses to discovery propounded in this case, i.e.,
18 answers to interrogatories, admissions and deposition transcripts. If plaintiff fails to contradict
19 defendants' evidence with counter-affidavits or other admissible evidence, the court may accept
20 defendants' evidence as true and grant the motion. If there is good reason why such facts are not
21 available to plaintiff when he is required to oppose a motion for summary judgment, the court
22 will consider a request to postpone considering the motion. If plaintiff does not file a written 23 opposition to the motion or a request to postpone consideration of it, the court may consider the 24 failure to act as a waiver of opposition to the defendants' motion. See L.R. 78-230(m). If the 25 court grants defendants' motion, whether opposed or unopposed, judgment will be entered for 26 defendants without a trial and the case will be closed.

1 11. The court will strike a any motion or opposition supported by unsigned affidavits or 2 declarations.

3 12. Each party shall keep the court informed of a current address at all times while this
4 action is pending. Any address change must be reported promptly to the court in a separate
5 document captioned for this case and must be entitled "Notice of Change of Address." A notice
6 of address change must be properly served on other parties. Service of documents at the address
7 on record for a party is fully effective. See L.R. 83-182(f). A party's failure to inform the court
8 of a change of address may result in the imposition of sanctions, including dismissal of the 9 action.

10 13. The Clerk of the Court shall serve upon plaintiff a copy of the Local Rules of Court.

11 14. The failure of any party to comply with this order, the Federal Rules of Civil 12 Procedure, or the Local Rules of Court may result in the imposition of sanctions including, but 13 not limited to, dismissal of the action or entry of default.
