v.

DANIEL DAY-LEWIS a/k/a "There will Be Blood" actor;
Gang of New York, Defendant's

Complaint

42 USC 1983 / Acting Like he does not care about my civil rights[©] comes now the Plaintiff, Jonathan Lee Riches[©], in pro-se, Moves under 42 USC 1983. Under Fed. Rules civil procedure Rule 64 seeks the return of $7.73 cents including tax from AMC Movie theater in Philly, PA for suffering Emotional trauma watching Gangs of New York. Now I have the Warriors, and subway bullies after me on defendant's orders. Daniel is a cross breed, his mother is Supreme Court Judge Sandra day, and his father was sprinter Carl Lewis, Emmanuel Lewis "webster" dictionary is his brother. "There will be blood" ticks about my life in solitary confinement at FCI Williamsburg. Defendant Daniel Acts like he does no care about my civil rights. He cancelled my Popular Science subscription. He serves me Pork, now Kosher meals. All my food has trans fat. Daniel took my website www. JonathanLeeRiches.org from me. He is Act da Fool! I want a sit down meeting with the gang leader. Defendant took my 8th amendment rights, now he drinks wine with my red blood cells, I saw de fendant J-walking, and eating chick-fillet fries on Sunday. I'm offended by defendant. And seek $20 million.
