UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

CHARLES YEAGER, et al.,
Plaintiffs,
v.
CONNIE BOWLIN, et al.,
Defendants.

No. 2:08-0102 WBS CKD

ORDER

This matter was referred to the undersigned for consideration of the ex parte application for an accounting. ECF No. 246. The document was filed in propria persona by plaintiff Charles Yeager and a person named Victoria Yeager, who is not a party to this action. Plaintiff Charles Yeager is represented by counsel in this action. See ECF No. 207 (attorney Michael Thomas substituted in as counsel of record for plaintiff).¹ The document filed in propria persona was therefore improvidently filed.

¹ The order also directed the Clerk’s Office to serve deponent Victoria Yeager, only as a courtesy, because she was the subject of an order to show cause regarding her failure to appear at a judgment debtor examination. The deponent had been ordered to appear to answer concerning property of the judgment debtor in the possession or control of Victoria Yeager. ECF. No. 192.
