IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

MARCUS HUDSON,

Plaintiff,

No. CIV S-08-1505 DAD P

vs.

S.R. STILES,

Defendant.

ORDER AND ORDER DIRECTING SERVICE

BY THE UNITED STATES MARSHAL

WITHOUT PREPAYMENT OF COSTS

Plaintiff is proceeding in forma pauperis pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915. By order filed December 11, 2008, the court previously determined that plaintiff’s amended complaint states cognizable claims for relief against defendant Stiles and ordered plaintiff to provide information for service of process on form USM-285, copies of the amended complaint for service, a completed summons, and a notice of compliance. Plaintiff has submitted the required papers.

Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. The Clerk of the Court is directed to forward plaintiff’s instructions for service of process, the completed summons, the copies of the November 26, 2008 amended complaint, copies of the form regarding consent or request for reassignment, and copies of this order to the United States Marshal.

1 2. Within ten days from the date of this order, the United States Marshal is 2 directed to notify defendant Stiles of the commencement of this action and to request a waiver of 3 service of summons from defendant in accordance with the provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(d) and 4 28 U.S.C. § 566(c).

5 3. The United States Marshal is directed to retain the sealed summons and a copy 6 of the amended complaint in their file for future use.

7 4. The United States Marshal shall file the returned waiver of service of summons 8 as well as any request for waiver that is returned as undelivered as soon as it is received.

9 5. If a waiver of service of summons is not returned by defendant within sixty 10 days from the date of mailing the request for waiver, the United States Marshal shall:

11 a. Personally serve process and a copy of this order upon the defendant
12 pursuant to Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and 28 U.S.C.
13 § 566(c) and shall command all necessary assistance from the California
14 Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR) to execute this 15 order. The United States Marshal shall maintain the confidentiality of all 16 information provided by the CDCR pursuant to this order.

17 b. Within ten days after personal service is effected, the United States 18 Marshal shall file the return of service for the defendant, along with 19 evidence of any attempts to secure a waiver of service of summons and of 20 the costs subsequently incurred in effecting service on said defendant. The 21 costs shall be enumerated on the USM-285 form and shall include the 22 costs incurred by the Marshal's office for photocopying additional copies
23 of the summons and amended complaint and for preparing new USM-285
24 forms, if required. Costs of service will be taxed against the personally 25 served defendant in accordance with the provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P.
26 4(d)(2).

1 6. Defendant shall reply to the amended complaint within the time provided by 2 the applicable provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(a).

3 7. Unless otherwise ordered, all motions to dismiss, motions for summary
4 judgment, motions concerning discovery, motions pursuant to Rules 7, 11, 12, 15, 41, 55, 56, 59
5 and 60 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and motions pursuant to Local Rule 11-110 shall 6 be briefed pursuant to Local Rule 78-230(m). Failure to oppose such a motion timely may be 7 deemed a waiver of opposition to the motion. Opposition to all other motions need be filed only 8 as directed by the court.

9 8. If plaintiff is released from prison at any time during the pendency of this case,
10 any party may request application of other provisions of Local Rule 78-230 in lieu of Local Rule
11 78-230(m). In the absence of a court order granting such a request, the provisions of Local Rule 12 78-230(m) will govern all motions described in #7 above regardless of plaintiff's custodial status.
13 See Local Rule 1-102(d).

14 9. Pursuant to Wyatt v. Terhune, 315 F.3d 1108, 1120 n.14 (9th Cir. 2003), 15 plaintiff is advised of the following requirements for opposing a motion to dismiss for failure to 16 exhaust administrative remedies made by defendant pursuant to non-enumerated Rule 12(b) of 17 the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Such a motion is a request for dismissal of unexhausted 18 claims without prejudice. The defendant may submit affidavits or declarations under penalty of 19 perjury and admissible documentation to support the motion to dismiss. To oppose the motion, 20 plaintiff may likewise file declarations under penalty of perjury and admissible documentation.
21 Plaintiff may rely upon statements made under the penalty of perjury in the amended complaint if 22 the amended complaint shows that plaintiff has personal knowledge of the matters stated and 23 plaintiff calls to the court's attention those parts of the amended complaint upon which plaintiff 24 relies. Plaintiff may serve and file one or more affidavits or declarations by other persons who 25 have personal knowledge of relevant matters. Plaintiff may also rely upon written records, but 26 plaintiff must prove that the records are what plaintiff claims they are. If plaintiff fails to

1 contradict defendant's evidence with admissible evidence, the court may rely on the defendant's
2 evidence. In the event both sides submit matters outside the pleadings, the court may look 3 beyond the pleadings and decide disputed issues of fact. If plaintiff does not serve and file a 4 written opposition to the motion, the court may consider the failure to act as a waiver of 5 opposition to the defendant's motion. If the defendant's motion to dismiss, whether opposed or 6 unopposed, is granted, plaintiff's unexhausted claims will be dismissed without prejudice.

7 10. Pursuant to Rand v. Rowland, 154 F.3d 952, 957 (9th Cir. 1998) (en banc),
8 and Klinge v. Eikenberry, 849 F.2d 409 (9th Cir. 1988), plaintiff is advised of the following
9 requirements for opposing a motion for summary judgment made by defendant pursuant to Rule
10 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Such a motion is a request for an order for judgment
11 in favor of defendant without trial. A defendant's motion for summary judgment will set forth 12 the facts that the defendant contends are not reasonably subject to dispute and that entitle the 13 defendant to judgment. To oppose a motion for summary judgment, plaintiff must show proof of 14 his or her claims. Plaintiff may do this in one or more of the following ways. Plaintiff may rely 15 upon statements made under the penalty of perjury in the complaint if the complaint shows that 16 plaintiff has personal knowledge of the matters stated and plaintiff calls to the court's attention
17 those parts of the complaint upon which plaintiff relies. Plaintiff may serve and file one or more 18 affidavits or declarations setting forth the facts that plaintiff believes prove plaintiff's claims; the 19 person who signs an affidavit or declaration must have personal knowledge of the facts stated.
20 Plaintiff may rely upon written records, but plaintiff must prove that the records are what plaintiff
21 claims they are. Plaintiff may rely upon all or any part of the transcript of one or more
22 depositions, answers to interrogatories, or admissions obtained in this proceeding. If plaintiff 23 fails to contradict the defendants' evidence with counteraffidavits or other admissible evidence, 24 the defendants' evidence may be taken as the truth and the defendants' motion for summary
25 judgment granted. If there is some good reason why such facts are not available to plaintiff when 26 required to oppose a motion for summary judgment, the court will consider a request to postpone

1 considering the defendant's motion. If plaintiff does not serve and file a written opposition to the 2 motion or a request to postpone consideration of the motion, the court may consider the failure to 3 act as a waiver of opposition to the defendant's motion. If the defendant's motion for summary
4 judgment, whether opposed or unopposed, is granted, judgment will be entered for the defendant
5 without a trial and the case will be closed.

6 11. A motion or opposition supported by unsigned affidavits or declarations will 7 be stricken.

8 12. Each party shall keep the court informed of a current address at all times
9 while the action is pending. Any change of address must be reported promptly to the court in a 10 separate document captioned for this case and entitled "Notice of Change of Address." A notice
11 of change of address must be properly served on other parties. Pursuant to Local Rule 83-182(f), 12 service of documents at the record address of a party is fully effective. Failure to inform the 13 court of a change of address may result in the imposition of sanctions including dismissal of the 14 action.

15 13. The Clerk of the Court shall serve upon plaintiff a copy of the Local Rules of 16 Court.

17 14. The failure of any party to comply with this order, the Federal Rules of Civil 18 Procedure, or the Local Rules of Court may result in the imposition of sanctions including, but 19 not limited to, dismissal of the action or entry of default.

20 DATED: January 16, 2009.
