DECLARATION OF [REDACTED]
 [REDACTED] IN SUPPORT OF
 PLAINTIFFS' MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

 Judge England

Declaration of [REDACTED] in Support of Plaintiffs' Motion for Summary Judgment

1 I, [REDACTED], make the following declaration pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746:

2 1. I am a resident of the state of California over 18 years of age, and my statements herein
3 are based on personal knowledge.

4 2. I supported the passage of Proposition 8.

5 3. In support of Proposition 8, I contributed a total of $X,XXX to ProtectMarriage.com -
6 Yes on 8, a Project of California Renewal.

7 4. In support of Proposition 8, I also put a “Yes on 8” yard sign in my yard, as well as the
8 yard of my cousin. Although my sign was not touched, the sign I placed in the yard of my cousin
9 disappeared within a week. Two other “Yes on 8” signs on the same street as my cousin’s sign
10 also disappeared.

11 5. On impulse the Saturday before the election, I stood with a “Yes on 8” sign on a corner
12 for approximately four hours. Although I received many people who honked and supported me, I
13 also had a number of people yell “No on 8,” shake their fists at me, call out “shame,” and give 14 me a thumbs down.

15 6. One man who was going the opposite way from where I stood stopped his car, stood up
16 (I believe through his sun roof), and shouted “You despicable filthy bag of shit!” at me.

17 7. Several cars drove around and around the block and yelled things like “You bitch” each 18 time they drove by.

19 8. One car with several men in it stopped, and a man in the back seat opened the door and 20 threw something right at me. Luckily, the object missed me, but I could not find the object that 21 he threw at me, so I do not know what it was.

22 9. One woman stopped her car and yelled “Get the hell out of here. Who do you think
23 you are, bringing that hate into my neighborhood?” I tried to tell her that I am a 4th generation
24 San Franciscan, who owns a house four blocks from where I was standing. However, the woman
25 kept screaming and drowning me out. She drove away, and came back two more times.

26 10. On January [REDACTED], a letter I wrote was published in [REDACTED], the official publication of the San Francisco REDACTED); on January REDACTED, REDACTED, a letter I wrote was published in REDACTED, the paper of my employer, the University of REDACTED. These letters were signed with my first initial and last name only.

11. One of my bosses (who I believe is a lesbian), and an openly gay man work behind me at my office. On January REDACTED, REDACTED, the day after the publication of my letter in the paper of my employer, I heard them talking about me in ways that are not complimentary, and when I heard them speaking about me, I worried that my job might be in jeopardy.

12. On February REDACTED, REDACTED, the department head asked to speak with me, and in short, he told me that he could not guarantee my job beyond the current year. He suggested that I keep my options open. I am not sure that my support for Proposition 8 has led to my job being in jeopardy, but I suspect that it has put it in jeopardy.

I DECLARE UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY THAT THE FOREGOING IS TRUE AND CORRECT.
