IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

RONALD E. WALTON,

Plaintiff,

No. CIV S-09-0479 EFB P

vs.

J. BUTLER, et al.,

Defendants.

ORDER AND ORDER DIRECTING SERVICE
BY THE UNITED STATES MARSHAL
WITHOUT PREPAYMENT OF COSTS

Plaintiff is a prisoner without counsel seeking relief for alleged civil rights violations. See 42 U.S.C. § 1983. He proceeds in forma pauperis. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915. On February 1, 2010, the court determined that plaintiff’s complaint states cognizable claims for relief against defendant Majors, Orum, Butler, Sheal, Clarey, Orrick, Sisto, and Gullery, and ordered plaintiff to provide a completed summons, sufficient copies of the complaint for service, information for service of process on form USM-285, and a notice of compliance. Plaintiff has filed the required papers.

Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. The Clerk of the Court is directed to forward the instructions for service of process, the completed summons, copies of the February 18, 2009, complaint, copies of the form Consent to Proceed Before a United States Magistrate Judge, and copies of this order to the United States

1 Marshal.

2 2. Within 14 days from the date of this order, the United States Marshal shall notify 3 defendants Majors, Orum, Butler, Sheal, Clarey, Orrick, Sisto, and Gullery, of the 4 commencement of this action and request a waiver of service of summons in accordance with the 5 provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(d) and 28 U.S.C. § 566(c).

6 3. The United States Marshal shall retain the sealed summons and a copy of the 7 complaint in their file for future use.

8 4. The United States Marshal shall file returned waivers of service of summons and 9 requests for waivers that are returned as undelivered promptly upon their receipt.

10 5. If a defendant fails to return a waiver of service of summons within 60 days from the 11 date the request is mailed, the United States Marshal shall:

12 a. Personally serve process and a copy of this order upon the defendant, see Fed.
13 R. Civ. P. 4, 28 U.S.C. § 566(c), and command all necessary assistance from the 14 California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (CDCR) to execute this 15 order, while maintaining the confidentiality of all information provided.

16 b. File, within 14 days after effecting personal service, the return of service with 17 evidence of any attempts to secure a waiver of service of summons and of the 18 costs incurred in effecting service. Such costs shall be enumerated on the USM-
19 285 form and shall include any costs the Marshal's office incurs for photocopying
20 additional copies of the summons and complaint and for preparing new USM-285
21 forms. Costs of service will be taxed against the personally served defendant.

22 See Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(d)(2).

23 6. Defendants shall reply to the complaint within the time provided in Fed. R. Civ. P.
24 12(a).

25 7. Unless otherwise ordered, all motions to dismiss, motions for summary judgment,
26 discovery motions, and motions made under the authority of Fed. R. Civ. P. 7, 11, 12, 15, 41, 55,

1 56, 59 and 60, and Local Rule (“L.R.”) 110 shall be briefed in accordance with L.R. 230(1).
2 Failure timely to file an opposition or statement of no opposition to a motion may be deemed a
3 waiver of opposition to the motion and may result in the imposition of sanctions. L.R. 230(1).
4 Opposition to all other motions need be filed only as directed by the court.

5 8. If plaintiff is released from prison while this case is pending, any party may request
6 application of the other provisions of L.R. 230 in lieu of L.R. 230(1). Until such a motion is
8 102(d).

9 9. As required by the appellate court in Wyatt v. Terhune, 315 F.3d 1108, 1120 n.14 (9th
10 Cir. 2003), the court hereby informs plaintiff of the following with respect to opposing a motion
11 to dismiss and/or for summary judgment for failure to exhaust available administrative remedies.
12 Such a motion is a request that the court dismiss without prejudice any unexhausted claims. The 13 moving party may submit affidavits or declarations under penalty of perjury and admissible
14 documents in support of its motion. Plaintiff may file declarations under penalty of perjury and 15 admissible documents in support of his opposition. Plaintiff may rely on his own statements
16 made under penalty of perjury in the complaint if the complaint shows that he has personal 17 knowledge of the matters stated, and plaintiff specifies the parts of the complaint on which he 18 relies. Affidavits or declarations must be sworn to by persons who have personal knowledge of 19 relevant matters. If plaintiff seeks to rely on written records, he must prove that the records are 20 what he asserts them to be. If plaintiff fails to contradict defendant’s evidence with admissible
21 evidence, the court may rely on defendant’s evidence. If plaintiff does not file a written 22 opposition to the motion, the court may consider the failure to act as a waiver of opposition to 23 the motion. See L.R. 230(1). If the court grants defendant’s motion, the unexhausted claims will 24 be dismissed without prejudice.

25 10. As required by the appellate court in Rand v. Rowland, 154 F.3d 952, 957 (9th Cir.
26 1998) (en banc), cert. denied, 527 U.S. 1035 (1999), and Klinge v. Eikenberry, 849 F.2d 409,

1 411-412 (9th Cir. 1988), the court informs plaintiff of the following with respect to opposing a
2 motion for summary judgment under Fed. R. Civ. P. 56: Such a motion is a request that the 3 court grant judgment in defendants' favor without trial. A motion for summary judgment will
4 set forth the facts that defendants assert are not reasonably subject to dispute and that entitle
5 them to judgment under applicable law. To oppose a motion for summary judgment, plaintiff
6 must show proof of his claims. To do this, he may rely upon statements made in the complaint
7 under penalty of perjury if the complaint shows that plaintiff has personal knowledge of the 8 matters stated and plaintiff specifies the parts of the complaint upon which he relies. Plaintiff
9 also may file one or more affidavits or declarations setting forth the facts that plaintiff believes
10 prove his claims, as long as the person who signs it has personal knowledge of the facts stated.
11 Plaintiff may rely on written records, but he must prove they are what he asserts them to be.
12 Plaintiff may rely on all or any part of responses to discovery propounded in this case, i.e.,
13 answers to interrogatories, admissions and deposition transcripts. If plaintiff fails to contradict
14 defendants' evidence with counter-affidavits or other admissible evidence, the court may accept
15 defendants' evidence as true and grant the motion. If there is good reason why such facts are not 16 available to plaintiff when he is required to oppose a motion for summary judgment, the court
17 will consider a request to postpone considering the motion. If plaintiff does not file a written 18 opposition to the motion or a request to postpone consideration of it, the court may consider the 19 failure to act as a waiver of opposition to the defendants' motion. See L.R. 230(1). If the court 20 grants defendants' motion, whether opposed or unopposed, judgment will be entered for 21 defendants without a trial and the case will be closed.

22         11. The court will strike a any motion or opposition supported by unsigned affidavits or 23 declarations.

24         12. Each party shall keep the court informed of a current address at all times while this 25 action is pending. Any address change must be reported promptly to the court in a separate
26 document captioned for this case and must be entitled "Notice of Change of Address." A notice

1 of address change must be properly served on other parties. Service of documents at the address
2 on record for a party is fully effective. See L.R. 182(f). A party's failure to inform the court of a
3 change of address may result in the imposition of sanctions, including dismissal of the action.

4 13. The Clerk of the Court shall serve upon plaintiff a copy of the Local Rules of Court.

5 14. The failure of any party to comply with this order, the Federal Rules of Civil 6 Procedure, or the Local Rules of Court may result in the imposition of sanctions including, but 7 not limited to, dismissal of the action or entry of default.
