8	IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
9	FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
10	MARVIN GLENN HOLLIS,
11	Plaintiff, No. CIV S-09-1627 JAM CKD P
12	VS.
13	A. GORBY, et al.,
14	Defendants. ORDER
15	/
16	Plaintiff has filed a motion in which he requests that the court order officials at his
17	prison to do several things:
18	1. Provide plaintiff with copies of certain documents plaintiff must give to
19	defendants pursuant to their requests for production of documents. Plaintiff asserts he has more
20	than 100 pages of documents to give to defendants and there is a policy at California State
21	Prison, Sacramento not to provide more than 100 pages of copies to inmates absent a court order.
22	2. Provide plaintiff with eight large legal envelopes so that he can mail his
23	discovery responses.
24	3. Provide plaintiff with ten sheets of legal paper per day over the course of one
25	week.

1	4. Provide plaintiff with three legal envelopes per day over the course of one
2	week.
3	Plaintiff has not shown a need for the order he seeks. He has not shown that he
4	has attempted to make copies of the documents he must provide defendants and denied the ability
5	to do so. While the policy to which plaintiff points is troublesome and could result in a denial of
6	plaintiff's Constitutional right to access courts, the court assumes law library staff have
7	discretion to provide inmates with 100 pages or more of documents if they deem the request to be
8	in good faith. ¹ As for legal supplies, plaintiff has not shown that the supplies he does receive are
9	insufficient for plaintiff to litigate this case.
10	Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that plaintiff's April 10, 2012 "motion
11	and request for court order to make copies of discovery documents that exceeds 100 pages, and
12	legal materials" is denied.

25	¹ Indeed, defendants have filed a response to plaintiff's motion suggesting that plaintiff need produce only one set of documents if he also identifies the documents he has produced in
26	his response to each defendant's request.
