The Joint Status Report shall address:

(1) a proposed briefing schedule;

(2) a suggested hearing date and an estimated duration of any hearing, including an indication as to whether one or both parties anticipate the need for an evidentiary hearing and, if so, the anticipated scope and duration of any evidentiary hearing;

(3) whether either party anticipates seeking discovery; and

(4) any other issues relevant to the court's handling of the pending motion.

Defendant's Request for Leave to Exceed Page Limit (Docket No. 593-1) is granted. Because the undersigned judge does not impose page limitations for briefs, leave need not be sought to file briefs in excess of a certain length.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
