19 Pursuant to Rule 6-144(a) of the Local Rules of Practice for 20 the United States District Court, Eastern District of California,
 21 plaintiff United States of America ("Plaintiff") and claimants J.
 22 Scott Rader, Susan C. Rader and the J. Scott Rader and Susan C.
 23 Rader 2006 Trust ("Claimants"), by and through their respective 24 counsel, hereby request that the joint status report currently 25 due on December 10, 2009 be continued for approximately 60 days,
 26 or effectively be due on February 8, 2010.

27 Plaintiff and Claimants make this request for the following 28 reasons: Plaintiff and Claimants are in the process of

1 determining a resolution to this dispute. To help inform that 2 process, Claimants' counsel is gathering documents and/or other
3 materials on behalf of his clients. Under the circumstances,
4 counsel for both Plaintiff and Claimants agree that they are not 5 in a position to contribute meaningfully either to the process of 6 conferring on the matter as required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f) or 7 to the preparation of a resulting joint status report as required
8 by the Court's Order on September 11, 2009.

9 As soon as the need has become apparent, Plaintiff and 10 Claimants without delay, hereby make their request pursuant to 11 Rule 6-144(d). See L. R. 6-144(d).

12 As further required pursuant to Rule 6-144(b), the Plaintiff
13 and Claimants hereby represent that one prior extension of time 14 of 30 days has previously been sought and granted in regard to 15 the filing of the joint status report. See L. R. 6-144(b).
