

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

SANDRA EILRICH.

No. 2:09-cv-2697 CKD

Plaintiff,

V.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

CAROLYN W. COLVIN,
Acting Commissioner of Social Security,

Defendant.

18 Defendant has filed an answer in this action. Pursuant to the May 6, 2015 scheduling
19 order, the time has now passed for plaintiff to file a motion for summary judgment and/or motion
20 for remand. The parties were advised in the scheduling order that the court is not responsible for 21 reminding them of scheduling deadlines and that failure to adhere to the schedule may result in 22 sanctions, including dismissal. L.R. 110. Plaintiff also was advised that plaintiff has an 23 affirmative duty to prosecute this action, and that failure to do so may result in a dismissal for 24 lack of prosecution. Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b).
