So. Dist. Case #07-cv-1951-BEN-AJB

12 The State of California, Department of Consumer Affairs (“DCA”), on behalf of the 13 Board of Registered Nursing (“BRN”) and Board of Pharmacy, (“BPH”), brought a motion for 14 protective order to protect certain documents and testimony related to the BRN Diversion 15 Program and the BPH Pharmacists’ Recovery Program (“PRP”) from production and deposition.
16 The actions pertaining only the BRN Diversion Program are numbered 09-110 and 09-113. The 17 action pertaining only to the PRP is numbered 09-112. The actions pertaining to both the BRN
18 Diversion Program and the PRP are numbered 09-0111 and 09-114. Following DCA’s Motion
19 for Protective Order, heard January 21, 2010, and Judge Hollows’ February 2, 2010 Order
20 thereon denying the motion, DCA submitted the matter for reconsideration before Judge 21 England, currently set for hearing on March 11, 2010. The parties below, through counsel, have 22 resolved this discovery dispute through stipulation, and good cause appears for the following 23 order:

24 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the following Stipulated Protective Order apply to 25 production of documents, depositions, declarations, or other pre-trial testimony in the above a 26 actions, thereby resolving the current dispute, and DCA’s motion for reconsideration is 27 withdrawn with prejudice:

28 ///

1 1. Definitions.

2 “Confidential Document” is a document that bears the stamp or legend “Confidential:
3 Subject to Protective Order” and which contains Confidential Information. There shall be no
4 restrictions on the use of a Confidential Document within the subject litigation, except as may 5 be imposed expressly herein or by the court before which the underlying action is pending.

6 “Confidential Information” is information lawfully entitled to confidential treatment
7 under California law, including without limitation, trade secrets and/or proprietary information, 8 financial information, medical information, and other personal information. For purposes of this 9 Protective Order, “Confidential Information” also includes information and records which are 10 not public records, if that information or record was developed by or for, or submitted to, DCA’s
11 BRN or BPH in connection with a diversion, recovery and/or probation monitoring program 12 pursuant to California Business and Professions Code sections 2770 et seq. or 4360 et seq.
13 Documents and records relating to BRN’s or BPH’s diversion, recovery or probation monitoring 14 programs held in accordance with Business and Professions Code section 156.1 shall be deemed 15 to contain Confidential Information for purposes of this Protective Order. To the extent that 16 information which would otherwise be Confidential Information has been publicly disclosed, it 17 shall generally not be considered Confidential Information under this Protective Order (except 18 to the extent any Designating Party objects or files a motion pursuant to the terms of this order).

19 “Designating Party” means the party who produces documents and marks them as 20 “Confidential: Subject to Protective Order.”

21 “Disclosing Party” is a Party who further produces a document marked as confidential
22 in accordance with this Protective Order.

23 “Document” means “writings” as defined in California Evidence Code section 250, and 24 shall include deposition transcripts, declarations, or other pre-trial testimony.

25 “Party” or Parties” to this Protective Order include: all named Plaintiffs, Defendants
26 Compass Vision, Inc. (“Compass”) and National Medical Services, Inc. dba NMS Labs 27 (“NMS”), third party-defendant MAXIMUS, Inc. (“MAXIMUS”), and non-party DCA and the 28 Boards of Nursing and Pharmacy.

1 2. Confidential Documents and Information.

2 2.1 The Designating Party may mark any document, deposition transcript, declaration, 3 or other pre-trial testimony which it believes contains Confidential Information as “Confidential:
4 Subject to Protective Order.” Testimony recorded by a court reporter may be designated as 5 confidential by making a statement to that effect on the record at the deposition or other 6 proceedings, or by marking the appropriate portion of the transcript as “Confidential: Subject to 7 Protective Order” within ten (10) days after the date the transcript of the testimony is available.
8 The document, deposition transcript, declaration, or other pre-trial testimony so marked shall be 9 considered confidential and may not be used outside of the instant actions unless 1) challenge 10 is made to the designation and no motion to protect the information is filed, as provided below, 11 or 2) the designation is withdrawn. A Designating Party may withdraw the designation of a 12 document, deposition transcript, declaration, or other pre-trial testimony as confidential by 13 circulating among the Parties a copy of the document, deposition transcript, declaration, or other 14 pre-trial testimony without the marking “Confidential: Subject to Protective Order” with written 15 acknowledgment that the designation has been withdrawn.

16 2.2 Within five (5) court days of receipt of a document, deposition transcript,
17 declaration, or other pre-trial testimony designated as confidential under this Protective Order, 18 any Party may provide the Designating Party with a written objection that lists the documents, 19 deposition transcripts, declarations, or other pre-trial testimony which the receiving party seeks 20 to have precluded from the Protective Order. If the document, deposition transcript, declaration, 21 or other pre-trial testimony arguably is not a public record and covered by California Business 22 and Professions Code sections 156.1, 2770 et seq. or 4360 et seq., then the objecting Party must 23 also provide notice of its objection to DCA by first class and certified mail to the attention of the 24 Executive Officer of BRN and/or BPH (whichever is applicable) with a copy via first class and 25 certified mail to the DCA’s Legal Affairs Division at 1625 N. Market Blvd., Suite S-309, 26 Sacramento, CA 95834.

27 ///

28 ///

1 2.3 Within ten (10) court days of receipt of an objection to a designation of a 2 document, deposition transcript, declaration, or other pre-trial testimony as confidential, the 3 Designating Party or DCA (subject to limitations below) shall have the right to file a motion 4 with the court in which the underlying action is pending to determine whether the document,
5 deposition transcript, declaration, or other pre-trial testimony is lawfully entitled to confidential
6 treatment under California law. DCA shall have the right to file such a motion only if DCA
7 asserts that the document is subject to this Protective Order as a diversion and/or recovery 8 program record, or that the deposition or pretrial testimony discloses information that would 9 otherwise be protected as a diversion and/or recovery program record. If such a motion is filed, 10 the documents, deposition transcripts, declarations, and/or other pre-trial testimony shall be 11 treated as Confidential Documents unless and until a final ruling to the contrary is obtained by 12 the District Court in which the motion has been made, including the expiration of any period in 13 which a Party may request reconsideration of any decision. This Order does not change or affect 14 the burden by which the proponent of confidentiality must establish its entitlement to 15 confidential treatment. No Party will seek any delay of the underlying litigation and no 16 document will be withheld or testimony refused because of the intent to file or the actual filing 17 of a motion seeking to establish confidentiality.

18 2.4 The failure of a Designating Party to file a timely motion shall result in the 19 document, deposition transcript, declaration, or other pre-trial testimony to which an objection
20 has timely been stated no longer being subject to this Protective Order.

21 2.5 Documents, deposition transcripts, declarations, or other pre-trial testimony 22 containing Confidential Information must be filed in redacted form and/or pursuant to an 23 application to seal. In the pending actions, the Parties acknowledge that nothing will be accepted 24 for filing under seal with the Court without separate prior order by the judge before whom the 25 hearing or proceeding will take place. Such order must be sought in accordance with Northern 26 District Local Rule 79-5 or, in the Southern District, by ex parte application by the Party filing 27 the document, deposition transcript, declaration, or other pre-trial testimony, with appropriate 28 notice to opposing counsel in accordance with Judge Battaglia's Civil Case Procedures.

1 3. Persons to Whom Confidential Documents, Deposition Transcripts, Declarations,
2 or Other Pre-Trial Testimony May be Disclosed.

3 3.1 Confidential Documents and Information, and any derivative documents,
4 deposition transcripts, declarations, or other pre-trial testimony based on the Confidential
5 Information, may only be used in connection with the above-captioned actions, as that use may 6 be further limited by the orders of the District Court before which the action is pending.

7 3.2 No Confidential Document or Information may be disclosed to any person 8 without the prior, written consent of the Designating Party, except that the following persons are 9 authorized to receive Confidential Documents and Information:

10 3.2.1 Counsel for the Parties, including, but not limited to, attorneys and 11 employees of such counsel's law firms, to the extent reasonably necessary 12 to render professional services in connection with the above-captioned 13 actions;

14 3.2.2 Parties, only to the extent necessary for such Parties to see Confidential
15 Documents for the purposes of the above-captioned actions;

16 3.2.3 Third party contractors (and their employees) involved in the organizing, 17 filing, coding, converting, storing, or retrieving data or designing 18 programs for handling data connected with the above-captioned actions, 19 including the performance of such duties in relation to a computerized 20 litigation support system;

21 3.2.4 Other persons not covered by Paragraphs 3.2.1 through 3.2.3 above, who 22 are employed by a Party or their attorneys of record to assist in the 23 preparation of the above-captioned actions for trial, such as independent 24 experts and consultants, and the employees of such experts and 25 consultants.

26 ///

27 ///

28 ///

1 3.2.5 Court officials and personnel involved in the above-captioned actions, 2 including without limitation judges, clerks, the trier-of-fact, including a 3 jury panel, in the trial of the underlying actions, court reporters, persons 4 operating video recording equipment at depositions, and any special 5 master or referee appointed by the Court;

6
7 3.2.6 Witnesses at deposition;

8 3.2.7 Any other person designed by the Northern District or Southern District 9 Courts in the interest of justice, and on such terms that the Court may 10 deem just and proper.

11 3.3 Before any Confidential Document or Information may be disclosed to persons 12 described in Paragraphs 3.2.2 through 3.2.4 and 3.2.6 above, the Disclosing Party shall provide 13 each person to whom such Confidential Documents and Information will be disclosed with a 14 copy of this Protective Order and shall require the person receiving the Confidential Document 15 or Information to sign a written certification that 1) s/he has received and read the Protective 16 Order; 2) that s/he understands and will abide by its terms; and 3) that s/he consents to the 17 exercise of personal jurisdiction by the Northern or Southern District Court, as appropriate, with 18 respect to any dispute concerning an alleged violation of this Protective Order. The Disclosing 19 Party shall maintain such written certifications and product the relevant certifications in 20 connection with any motion filed to enforce this Protective Order.

21 4. Obligations On Termination of the Underlying Actions.

22 4.1 At the conclusion of the above-captioned action in which the Confidential 23 Documents or Information were produced, including the resolution of any appeal or expiration 24 of any period in which an appeal may be filed, all Confidential Documents shall be returned to 25 counsel of record for the Designating Party or destroyed (at the option of the party in possession 26 of the Confidential Documents). All other documents, deposition transcripts, declarations, or 27 other pre-trial testimony that reveal Confidential Information, including copies, excerpts, or 28 summaries, shall be destroyed.

1 4.2 All obligations and duties arising under this Protective Order shall survive the 2 termination of the above-captioned actions and, in addition, shall be binding upon the Parties 3 (including their successors and assigns, whether in whole or in part, and their affiliates, 4 subsidiaries, their officers, agents, representatives and employees) and any individual to whom 5 Confidential Documents or Information was disclosed hereunder.

6 4.3 This Court shall retain jurisdiction only with respect to enforcement of this Order
7 if violated. Any dispute regarding the improper use of Confidential Documents or Information 8 released under this Order, and to enter further Orders respecting Confidential Information, as 9 may be necessary will be in the jurisdiction of the Court in the underlying litigation:
