RESCHEDULING PRETRIAL
CONFERENCE

28 [No hearing required]

1 Court around June 25, 2012). Rescheduling the pretrial conference in this manner will 2 conserve the resources of the parties and the Court, because without a rescheduling of 3 the pretrial conference the parties would have to prepare and file pretrial statements
4 and the parties and the Court would conduct the May 29, 2012, pretrial conference 5 when the Court may shortly thereafter stay the case pending the appeal. Moreover, 6 without a rescheduling of the pretrial conference, Mr. Suntag will have only a limited
7 ability to be involved in the preparation of pretrial statements. Therefore, the parties 8 believe that good cause, as required by Rule 16(b)(4) of the Local Rules, exists for the 9 rescheduling of the pretrial conference.

10 H. Since the trial date is August 28, 2012, the parties do not believe 11 the scheduling change they request by this stipulation requires any change to the trial
12 date and the parties do not request the Court to change that date.
