16	Plaintiff is a state prisoner proceeding without counsel in an action brought under 42
17	U.S.C. § 1983. The February 29, 2012 discovery and scheduling order set April 23, 2012, as the
18	date by which all written requests for discovery were to be served. Dckt. No. 24. On April 26,
19	2012, plaintiff moved to extend that deadline by 30 days because of a lockdown, lack of access
20	to his legal property and the law library, and a change of address. Dckt. No. 27. Defendants did
21	not respond to plaintiff's request.

Doc. 29

A scheduling order may be modified upon a showing of good cause. Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(b). Good cause exists when the moving party demonstrates he cannot meet the deadline despite exercising due diligence. Johnson v. Mammoth Recreations, Inc., 975 F.2d 604, 609 (9th Cir. 1992). Good cause appearing, plaintiff's request to modify the scheduling order, Dckt. No. 27, is granted, and plaintiff's requests for written discovery must be served no later than May 23, 2012.

So ordered.

DATED: May 21, 2012.
