Plaintiff moves to strike one of Defendant Dale Elaine McCormick's expert disclosures, and two of Defendant John G. Steffes's expert disclosures, arguing those disclosures do not comply with the requirements prescribed in the Court's January 11, 2011 Scheduling Order. However, review of the January 11, 2011 Scheduling Order's expert disclosure provision on which Plaintiff relies reveals that the provision erroneously refers to a non-existing Federal Rule of Civil Procedure. Therefore, that provision stricken, and Plaintiff's motions to strike are denied.
