Case No. 2:11-cv-00623-MCE-EFB

STIPULATION FOR EXTENSION OF
 TIME TO FILE DISPOSITIONAL DOCUMENTS RE: SETTLEMENT and ORDER

27 On August 14, 2014, this Court issued a minute order that all dispositional documents regarding 28 settlement of this case were to be filed by not later than October 14, 2014. Both counsel for Plaintiff and counsel for the United States of America requested an extension of 30 days for the filing of the dispositional documents. Unfortunately, despite the efforts of Ms. Boynton’s counsel, he has been

1 unable to communicate with her or obtain her signature on the settlement documents. As a result, an 2 additional 30 day extension is hereby requested.

3           Shortly after agreeing to the settlement of this case, Plaintiff Peggy Boynton traveled to North
4 Carolina to visit a sick relative. While there, Ms. Boynton herself suffered a serious injury and was 5 hospitalized. Ms. Boynton does not use a cell phone or email and, as a result, essentially lost contact
6 with counsel for a lengthy period of time and was unable to finalize the settlement. Ms. Boynton
7 remains in North Carolina but is now able to communicate with her counsel via United States mail. It
8 was anticipated that a 30 day extension would provide enough time to have the settlement agreement
9 signed. During this 30 period no communications have been received from Ms. Boynton. It is hoped 10 that an additional 30 days will provide enough time to communicate with Ms. Boynton to have the 11 settlement documents signed.

14           All parties remain committed to the agreed upon terms of settlement of this case, but request an 15 additional 30 days, to December 29, 2014, to file the dispositional documents as a result of Ms.
16 Boynton's circumstances.
