¹ By chance, the court noticed that petitioner sent his motion from a prison address different from the prison address that is currently on file with the court. The court has directed the clerk to update petitioner’s address accordingly. However, petitioner is admonished that it is his responsibility to inform the court of any change of address and to do so as soon as possible. Petitioner’s failure to update the court with his contact information in the future may result in dismissal of his case without prejudice.
