IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

SAMUEL ANDERSON,

Plaintiff,

No. 2: 12-cv-0261 MCE KJN P

vs.

J. CLARK KELSO, et al.,

Defendants.

ORDER

_____ /

Plaintiff is a state prisoner, proceeding through counsel, with a civil rights action. On March 27, 2013, plaintiff himself filed a motion requesting proper pain medication. Because plaintiff is represented by counsel, he may communicate with the court only through counsel. For this reason, plaintiff’s motion is disregarded.¹

Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

- 1. Plaintiff’s motion for adequate pain medication (dkt. no. 112) is disregarded;

¹ Plaintiff’s March 27, 2013 motion for adequate pain medication concerns conditions at California State Prison-Lancaster (“Lancaster”). The instant action concerns conditions of confinement at High Desert State Prison (“HDSP”). It does not appear that any named defendant could respond to a request for injunctive relief regarding conditions at Lancaster. If plaintiff wishes to pursue claims regarding conditions of confinement at Lancaster, he should file a civil rights action in the United States District Court for the Central District of California.
