EX PARTE MOTION AND ORDER EXTENDING
PLAINTIFF'S TIME TO FILE
MOTION FOR SUMMARY
JUDGMENT

17 _____ /
18 Plaintiff AZAM BOZORGMANESH moves the court ex parte for a second extension of 19 time to file a motion for summary judgment.

20 The reason for this is that the undersigned has a particularly large number of these cases in 21 federal court currently, along with the rest of his practice, but more specifically because of being
22 unable to download the transcript for this case. Attempts were made repeatedly on July 3rd and July
23 5th, but only about 250 pages of about 675 pages were produced. It might be a computer problem,
24 but it appears to be a problem with the electronic system itself, perhaps one that developed after the 25 beginning of the July 4th holiday. Attempting to download another file was also problematic.

26 Because work could not be begun and the undersigned has five Social Security hearings this 27 week, along with other work, a second extension to July 15, 2013, is requested.
