ORDER REGARDING CALIFORNIA’S DECLINATION OF INTERVENTION

24 The State of California (“California”), having declined to intervene in this action, and
 25 pursuant to California’s False Claims Act, the Court rules as follows:

26 The complaint has been unsealed. All other contents of the Court’s file in this action shall 27 remain under seal and not be made public or served upon Defendants, except for this Order, and 28 California’s Notice of Election to Decline Intervention, the United States’ Notice of Election to

Decline Intervention, all of which Relator shall serve upon Defendants only after the unsealing of this matter and the service of the Complaint;

Should the Relator or Defendants propose that this action be dismissed, settled, or otherwise discontinued, the Court will solicit the written consent and approval of California before ruling or granting its approval;

The parties shall serve all pleadings and motions subsequently filed in this action on California; and,

California may order any deposition transcripts and is entitled to intervene in the action, for good cause shown, at a later date.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: August 5, 2013.
