UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

BETH A. BODI,

 Plaintiff,

 v.

SHINGLE SPRINGS BAND OF
MIWOK INDIANS, et al.,

 Defendants.

No. 2:13-cv-01044-MCE-CKD

ORDER REQUIRING JOINT STATUS REPORT

 This action has been assigned to the Honorable Morrison C. England, Jr.
Pursuant to the provisions of Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. Plaintiff(s) shall complete service of process on all parties within one hundred twenty (120) days of the date of the filing of the complaint.
2. Concurrently with the service of process, or as soon thereafter as possible, plaintiff(s) shall serve upon each of the parties named in the complaint, and upon all parties subsequently joined, a copy of this Order, and shall file with the Clerk of the Court a certificate reflecting such service. Any party who impleads a third-party defendant shall serve upon that party a copy of this Order and shall file with the Clerk of the Court a certificate reflecting such service.

1 3. In the event this action was originally filed in a state court and was
2 thereafter removed to this Court, the removing parties shall, immediately following such
3 removal, serve upon each of the other parties named in the complaint, and upon all
4 parties subsequently joined, a copy of this Order and shall file with the Clerk of the Court
5 a certificate reflecting such service.

6 4. Within sixty (60) days of service of the complaint on any party, or from the 7 date of removal, the parties shall confer as required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f) and shall
8 prepare and submit to the Court a joint status report that includes the Rule 26(f)
9 discovery plan. The joint status report shall address the following matters:

10 (a) a brief summary of the claims;

11 (b) status of service upon all defendants and cross-defendants, i.e., are
12 responsive pleadings on file with the Court;

13 (c) possible joinder of additional parties;

14 (d) contemplated amendments to the pleadings;

15 (e) the statutory basis for jurisdiction and venue (cite the code
16 sections);

17 (f) anticipated discovery and exchange of information, including:

18 (1) what changes, if any, should be made in the timing, form, or
19 requirement for disclosures under Rule 26(a), including a statement as to
20 when disclosures under Rule 26(a)(1) were made or will be made;

21 (2) the subjects on which discovery may be needed; when
22 discovery should be completed, and whether discovery should be
23 conducted in phases;

24 (3) what changes, if any, should be made in the limitations on
25 discovery imposed under the Civil Rules and what other limitations, if any,
26 should be imposed;

27 (4) whether the parties anticipate discovery of electronically
28 stored information ("ESI"), and if so:

1 (i) whether the parties have exchanged or will exchange
2 information regarding the parties' relevant electronic systems and
3 custodians of relevant electronic materials;

4 (ii) the format, media and procedures agreed to by the
5 parties for the production of ESI;

6 (iii) whether the parties anticipate discovery of ESI from
7 sources that are not "reasonably accessible" within the meaning of
8 Rule 26(b)(2)(B), the burdens and costs of retrieving such ESI, and
9 any conditions that should be placed on its production;

10 (iv) any other problems reasonably anticipated to arise in
11 connection with ESI discovery.

12 (5) the timing of the disclosure of expert witnesses and
13 information required by Rule 26(a)(2); and

14 (6) proposed dates for discovery cut-off.

15 (g) proposed date by which all non-discovery motions shall be filed;

16 (h) proposed dates for final pretrial conference and trial;

17 (i) estimate days of trial, and whether any party has demanded a jury;

18 (j) appropriateness of special procedures such as reference to a
19 special master or agreement to try the matter before a magistrate judge pursuant
20 to 28 U.S.C. § 636(c);

21 (k) proposed modification of standard pretrial procedures due to the
22 special nature of the case;

23 (l) whether the case is related to any other case, including any matter
24 involving bankruptcy;

25 (m) prospects for settlement, including whether a settlement conference
26 should be scheduled; and

27 ///

28 ///

1 (n) any other matters that may be conducive to the just and expeditious
2 disposition of the case, including whether counsel will waive any disqualification
3 and stipulate to the trial judge acting as a settlement judge.

4 5. The Court, upon review of the joint status report, may:

5 (a) issue a Pretrial (Status) Scheduling Order incorporating the
6 suggestions of counsel as contained in the joint status report;

7 (b) by minute order, set a status conference to be held either by
8 telephone or in person.

9 (c) by minute order, require the parties to submit a supplemental joint
10 status report to clarify and or complete the responses required by paragraph 4,
11 above.

12 6. If the parties agree to a settlement conference, a settlement judge will be
13 randomly assigned to the case. If the parties specifically request that the assigned
14 District Judge or Magistrate Judge conduct the settlement conference, the parties shall 15 file the appropriate waiver of disqualification in accordance with Local Rule 270(b). The 16 waiver of disqualification shall be filed concurrently with the Joint Status Report.

17 7. A Pretrial (Status) Scheduling Order will be issued regarding future
18 proceedings in the case. Counsel are directed to read the order carefully. Requests to 19 modify or vacate any date or other limitation set forth in the order are not favored and will
20 not be granted absent good cause.

21 8. Any briefs or other papers filed prior to the issuance of the Pretrial (Status)
22 Scheduling Order shall not exceed twenty (20) pages. Any party wishing to file lengthier
23 documents must first seek relief from said page limitation requirement from the Court.

24 9. The parties are directed to the Court's website for available hearing dates
25 and Judge England's standard procedures. (www.caed.uscourts.gov → choose Judges
26 → choose Judge England → choose Standard Information)

27 10. In order to assist the Court in meeting its recusal responsibilities, any 28 non-governmental corporate party to this action shall submit a statement identifying all

1 its parent corporations and listing any publicly held company that owns ten percent
2 (10%) or more of the party's stock. Such statement shall be included in the parties' joint
3 status report. Thereafter, if there is any change in the information, the party shall file and
4 serve a supplemental statement within a reasonable time after such change occurs.

5 11. In accordance with L.R. 160, counsel are to immediately notify the 6 courtroom deputy and chambers of any settlement or other disposition of the case.
