STREETS LOCAL 405,
Defendants.

FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

20
21 On February 4, 2015, this matter was before the court for hearing on defendants 22 Carpenters Pension Trust Fund for Northern California (the “Pension Fund”), Carpenters Board 23 of Trustees and its trustees Mike Knab, Bon Alvarado, and Bill Feyling, the Carpenters Fund
24 Administrative Office of Northern California, Inc.,<sup>1</sup> Carpenters Health & Welfare Trust Fund, 25 Carpenters Union Local # 22, Carpenters Union Local # 217, Rigo LaGuardia, and Jay Streets’

26
27 <sup>1</sup> Plaintiff erroneously sues Carpenters Pension Trust Fund for Northern California as 28 “Carpenters Pension Trust Fund,” and the Carpenters Fund Administrative Office of Northern California, Inc. as “Administration Office of Northern California (Gene Price).”

1 motion to dismiss plaintiff's second amended complaint for failure to state a claim pursuant to 2 Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(6). ECF No. 70.<sup>2</sup> For the reasons state below, it is 3 recommended that the motion be granted in part and denied in part.

4 I. Procedural History

5 Plaintiff initiated this action on June 5, 2013. ECF No. 1. On September 30, 2013, the 6 Pension Fund, Knab Alvarado, Feyling, and Charlene Martinez moved to dismiss the complaint.
7 ECF No. 13. Plaintiff subsequently filed a motion to amend together with a first amended 8 complaint. ECF Nos. 14, 15, 16. The amended complaint was filed within 21 days of 9 defendants' responsive pleading, and under Rule 15(a) plaintiff was permitted to amend his 10 compliant as a matter of course. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(a). For that reason, the motion to dismiss 11 was denied as moot, and defendants were instructed to file a response to the first amended 12 complaint. ECF No. 20.

13 On October 22, 2013, the same defendants moved to dismiss the amended complaint 14 pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(3) and 12(b)(6), arguing that the Eastern 15 District of California was not a proper venue and that the complaint failed to state a claim. ECF 16 No. 30. In what appeared to be a duplicative motion, defendants Bob Alvarado, Mike Knab, Bill 17 Feyling, Rigo LaGuardia, and Jay Streets moved to dismiss on the identical grounds but in their 18 "individual" capacities. ECF No. 29. Defendants' motions were granted in part and denied in 19 part. ECF Nos. 59, 61. The motion based on improper venue was denied, but the complaint was 20 dismissed for failure to state a claim. Id.

21 After receiving two extensions of time, plaintiff filed his second amended complaint, 22 incorrectly styled as a first amended complaint. ECF No. 68. The second amended complaint 23 added three new defendants: Gene Price, Carpenters Fund Administrative Office of Northern 24 California, Inc. ("CFAO"),<sup>3</sup> and the Carpenters Health & Welfare Trust Fund ("H&W Fund").

26 <sup>2</sup> This case, in which plaintiff is proceeding pro se, is before the undersigned pursuant to 27 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1) and Eastern District of California Local Rule 302(c)(21).

28 <sup>3</sup> Plaintiff erroneously sues the Carpenters Fund Administrative Office of Northern California, Inc., as Carpenters Fund Administration Office; Gene Price

1 All defendants, with the exception of Shawn Leonard, have moved to dismiss the second 2 amended complaint pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6) for failure to state a claim. ECF No. 70. Plaintiff, 3 rather than filing an opposition to that motion, filed a “Final Amended 2nd Complaint,” which the 4 court construes as a motion for leave to amend the complaint.<sup>4</sup> As explained below, defendants’ 5 motion to dismiss must be granted in part and denied in part. Further, plaintiff’s motion to amend 6 should be denied.

7 II. Motion to Dismiss

8 A. Rule 12(b)(6) Standards

9 To survive dismissal for failure to state a claim pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6), a complaint 10 must contain more than a “formulaic recitation of the elements of a cause of action”; it must 11 contain factual allegations sufficient to “raise a right to relief above the speculative level.” Bell 12 Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 555 (2007). “The pleading must contain something more 13 . . . than . . . a statement of facts that merely creates a suspicion [of] a legally cognizable right of 14 action.” Id. (quoting 5 C. Wright & A. Miller, Federal Practice and Procedure § 1216, pp. 235-15 236 (3d ed. 2004)). “[A] complaint must contain sufficient factual matter, accepted as true, to 16 ‘state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.’” Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 678 (2009) 17 (quoting Twombly, 550 U.S. at 570). “A claim has facial plausibility when the plaintiff pleads 18 factual content that allows the court to draw the reasonable inference that the defendant is liable 19 for the misconduct alleged.” Id. Dismissal is appropriate based either on the lack of cognizable 20 legal theories or the lack of pleading sufficient facts to support cognizable legal theories.
21 Balistreri v. Pacifica Police Dep’t, 901 F.2d 696, 699 (9th Cir. 1990).

22 In considering a motion to dismiss, the court must accept as true the allegations of the 23 complaint in question, Hospital Bldg. Co. v. Rex Hosp. Trs., 425 U.S. 738, 740 (1976), construe 24 the pleading in the light most favorable to the party opposing the motion, and resolve all doubts in 25 the pleader’s favor. Jenkins v. McKeithen, 395 U.S. 411, 421, reh’g denied, 396 U.S. 869 (1969).

26

27 <sup>4</sup> At the time of submission of that purported third amended complaint, plaintiff no longer 28 had the right under Rule 15(a) to file any further amended complaints without the defendants’ consent or leave of the court. Fed. R. Civ. P. 15(a)(2).

1        The court is also cognizant of plaintiff's pro se status. Pro se pleadings are held to a less 2 stringent standard than those drafted by lawyers. Haines v. Kerner, 404 U.S. 519, 520-21 (1972).
3        However, although the court must construe the pleadings of a pro se litigant liberally, Bretz v.
4 Kelman, 773 F.2d 1026, 1027 n. 1 (9th Cir. 1985), that liberal interpretation may not supply 5 essential elements of a claim that are not plead. Pena v. Gardner, 976 F.2d 469, 471 (9th Cir.
6 1992); Ivey v. Bd. of Regents of Univ. of Alaska, 673 F.2d 266, 268 (9th Cir. 1982). Furthermore, 7 “[t]he court is not required to accept legal conclusions cast in the form of factual allegations if 8 those conclusions cannot reasonably be drawn from the facts alleged.” Clegg v. Cult Awareness 9 Network, 18 F.3d 752, 754-55 (9th Cir. 1994). Neither need the court accept unreasonable 10 inferences, or unwarranted deductions of fact. W. Mining Council v. Watt, 643 F.2d 618, 624 (9th 11 Cir. 1981).

12        In deciding a Rule 12(b)(6) motion to dismiss, the court may consider facts established by 13 exhibits attached to the complaint. Durning v. First Boston Corp., 815 F.2d 1265, 1267 (9th Cir.
14 1987). The court may also consider facts which may be judicially noticed, Mullis v. U.S. Bankr.
15 Ct., 828 F.2d at 1338, and matters of public record, including pleadings, orders, and other papers 16 filed with the court. Mack v. South Bay Beer Distrib., 798 F.2d 1279, 1282 (9th Cir. 1986).

17        B. Factual Allegations

18        Plaintiff worked as a carpenter and joined the carpenters union in San Francisco, 19 Carpenters Local # 22, in 1978. ECF No. 68 ¶ 8. Between 1979 and 1980, plaintiff worked as a 20 union carpenter in Palm Springs, California, before taking a short break from carpentry to work as 21 a locksmith. Id. In 1982, plaintiff joined the carpenters union in San Bruno, California, and 22 continued to work as a union carpenter without a break in service until his retirement. Id. ¶¶ 8, 23 10. As a union member, he participated in a pension plan that was governed by the Pension Fund.
24 Id. ¶ 13. Plaintiff alleges that defendants wrongfully denied him benefits, and that the denial is 25 subject to review by this court pursuant to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act 26 (“ERISA”). Id. ¶ 3.

27        Plaintiff further alleges that he is “totally disabled” as that term is defined by the pension 28 plan. Id. ¶¶ 14-15, 24. In August 2011, plaintiff submitted his Carpenters Disability Pension

1 Application. Id. ¶ 25. However, in September 2011, in response to his application, plaintiff
2 received several letters informing him that he was not eligible for certain Future Service
3 Eligibility credits (“FSE”) for which he had previously been credited. The crux of plaintiff’s 4 complaint is that defendants wrongfully removed the previously-granted FSE credits.

5 C. Discussion

6 Plaintiff brings this action pursuant ERISA, 29 U.S.C. § 1132(a)(1)(B). ECF No. 14 ¶¶ 4, 7 6. That provision of ERISA permits a plan participant to bring a claim “to recover benefits due to 8 him under the terms of the plan, to enforce his rights as a beneficiary under the terms of the plan, 9 or to clarify his right to future benefits under the terms of the plan.” Miniz v. Amec Constr.
10 Mgmt., 623 F.3d 1290, 1294 (9th Cir. 2010). A claim for denial of benefits pursuant to 29 U.S.C.
11 § 1132(a)(1)(B) “is to be reviewed under a de novo standard unless the benefit plan gives the 12 administrator or fiduciary discretionary authority to determine eligibility for benefits or to 13 construe the terms of the plan.” Firestone Tire & Rubber Co. v. Bruch, 489 U.S. 101, 115 (1989).
14 ERISA’s “statutory scheme . . . ‘is built around reliance on the face of written plan documents.’” 15 U.S. Airways, Inc. v. McCutchen, ___ U.S. ___, 133 S.Ct. 1537, 1548 (2013) (quoting Curtiss– 16 Wright Corp. v. Schoonejongan, 514 U.S. 73, 83 (1995)).

17 Defendants argue that plaintiff’s ERISA claim must be dismissed because plaintiff has 18 failed to establish that he was wrongfully denied pension benefits under the pension plan. ECF 19 No. 70 at 7-9. While the amended complaint is not a model of clarity and is filled with 20 extraneous allegations having little relevance to the ERISA claim, plaintiff’s ERISA claim can be 21 discerned from the complaint. Liberally construed, plaintiff’s second amended complaint and 22 appended documents sufficiently allege an ERISA claim for judicial review of the plan 23 administrator’s decision to deny or revoke the credit for employment service time under the plan 24 for which plaintiff was entitled, either because of his work in covered employment or because of 25 his period of disability.

26 Plaintiff alleges that he worked as a union carpenter between 1979 and 1980, and 1982 27 until October 2006. ECF No. 68 ¶¶ 8, 10, 24. He further contends that during his time as a union 28 carpenter he participated in a pension plan that was governed by the Pension Fund. Id. ¶ 13.

1 Plaintiff alleges that he became “Permanent & Stationary” in March 2010. Id. ¶ 22.
2 Additionally, he was found permanently disabled effective April 13, 2007, in a decision issued by 3 the Social Security Administration in July 2011. Id. ¶ 27.

4 In August 2001, plaintiff submitted a Carpenters Disability Pension Application. Id. ¶ 25.
5 In response to his application, plaintiff received “7 letters removing pension credits claiming 6 [plaintiff] was not working in covered employment prior to” his injury. Id. ¶ 27. Appended to 7 plaintiff’s complaint are several letters informing plaintiff that he is not eligible for certain Future 8 Service Eligibility credits (“FSE”) that he was previously credited. ECF No. 68-1, Ex. 7A-7F.
9 Specifically, the letters state that after conducting an audit of plaintiff’s file, it was determined 10 that plaintiff was erroneously granted FSE credits for March through May 1991, March through 11 June 1995, August through September 1997, September 2001 through March 2002, May 2006
12 through July 2006, and March 2007 through September 2009. Id. Furthermore, citing to rule 13 6.04 of the plan, plaintiff addresses the impact being off work during a period of time due to 14 disability and specifically alleges that he is entitled to FSE credits for that time. ECF No. 68 ¶ 19.

15 These allegations are sufficient to assert an ERISA claim that he was entitled to receive 16 FSE credits under the plan due to his disability, but that such credits were wrongfully removed in 17 violation of the plan. Accordingly, plaintiff’s current complaint is sufficient to state a claim 18 pursuant 29 U.S.C. § 1132(a)(1)(B).

19 However, as mentioned, plaintiff’s complaint is cluttered with extraneous allegations that 20 appear to have no relevance to his challenge to the removal of his pension benefits. Many are 21 simply distractions. Others suggest that maybe plaintiff is attempting to assert some other type of 22 non-ERISA claim. For example, plaintiff alleges that defendant Shawn Leonard wrongfully 23 demoted him on September 13, 2006. ECF No. 68 at 13. He further claims that he complained to 24 defendant Alvarado about the demotion, but Alvarado took no action. Id. It is unclear how such 25 allegations relate to the removal of plaintiff’s FSE credits. These allegations do no more than hint 26 at other claims but do not satisfy the requirements of Iqbal, Twombly and Rule 8(a).

27 Furthermore, while plaintiff names several defendants in this action, the complaint fails to 28 allege that defendants Price, Carpenters Health & Welfare Trust Fund, Carpenters Union Local

1 # 22, Carpenters Union Local # 217, Rigo LaGuardia, Jay Streets, Knab, and Feyling engaged in 2 any wrongful conduct. The complaint also contains a section entitled cause of action, where 3 plaintiff references several purported claims, including breach of contract, theft of pension 4 credits, bad faith, fraud, collusion, and oppression. ECF No. 68 at 15-16. No factual allegations 5 are set out in support of any such claims.<sup>5</sup>

6 As confirmed at the February 4 hearing, plaintiff brings this action to challenge the 7 removal of his pension credits pursuant to section 29 U.S.C. § 1132(a)(1)(B). The proper 8 defendant for such a claim is the party that has the authority to resolve plaintiff's benefits claim.
9 Cry v. Reliance Standard Life Ins. Co., 642 F.3d 1202, 1206-1207 (9th Cir. 2011) (holding that 10 for liability under 29 U.S.C. § 1132(a)(1)(B), the proper defendant is any party with the authority 11 to resolve the plaintiff's benefit claim and pay the benefits). Here, each of the letters indicating 12 that pension credits were being removed was issued by the Carpenters Funds Administrative 13 Office of Northern California. ECF No. 68-1, Ex. 7A-7F. Furthermore, at the hearing, 14 defendants' counsel represented that the Pension Fund retained the authority to grant or remove 15 pension credits. Accordingly, the court finds that the Pension Fund and the Carpenters Funds 16 Administrative Office of Northern California are proper defendants for plaintiff's 1132(a)(1)(B) 17 claim. As plaintiff has not sufficiently alleged any other claims for relief, the court recommends 18 that the remaining defendants who have appeared in this action<sup>6</sup> be dismissed, and this matter 19 proceed on plaintiff's ERISA claim brought pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 1132(a)(1)(B) against the 20 Carpenters Funds Administrative Office of Northern California and the Pension Fund.

24
25 <sup>5</sup> Even with additional facts in support of these state law claims, it is clear they are 26 predicated on and intended to challenge the denial of plaintiff's pension credits and are therefore 27 preempted by ERISA. See Peralta v. Hispanic Business, Inc., 419 F.3d 1064, 1069 (9th Cir.
28 2005) (claims requiring interpretation of the plan are preempted).

25 <sup>6</sup> Named defendant Shawn Lawrence has not appeared in this action. Defense counsel 26 indicated at the hearing that he did not represent Lawrence.

1      III.    CONCLUSION

2      Accordingly, it is hereby RECOMMENDED that defendants' motion to dismiss, ECF No.
3      70, be granted in part and denied in part as follows:

4      1. Defendants' motion to dismiss plaintiff's 29 U.S.C. § 1132(a)(1)(B) against the 5      Carpenters Funds Administrative Office of Northern California and Carpenters Pension Trust 6      Fund for Northern California be denied; and 7      2. The motion be granted in all other respects.

8      These findings and recommendations are submitted to the United States District Judge 9      assigned to the case, pursuant to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). Within fourteen days 10     after being served with these findings and recommendations, any party may file written 11     objections with the court and serve a copy on all parties. Such a document should be captioned 12     "Objections to Magistrate Judge's Findings and Recommendations." Failure to file objections 13     within the specified time may waive the right to appeal the District Court's order. Turner v.
14     Duncan, 158 F.3d 449, 455 (9th Cir. 1998); Martinez v. Ylst, 951 F.2d 1153 (9th Cir. 1991).

15     DATED: February 18, 2015.
