3	Examination of the above-entitled act	tions reveals that the actions are related within the
5	meaning of E.D. Cal. Local Rule 123. The actions involve similar claims and similar questions of
6	fact and law, and would therefore entail a substantial duplication of labor if heard by different
7	judges. See E.D. Cal. L.R. 123(a). Accordingly, the assignment of the matters to the same judge
8	is likely to effect a substantial savings of judi	icial effort and is also likely to be convenient for the 9	parties.

Motions to Proceed In Forma Pauperis

In each of the above-entitled actions, in which plaintiff is proceeding in propria persona, plaintiff seeks leave to proceed in forma pauperis pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915. Plaintiff's declarations make the showing required by 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(1) and (2). Accordingly, the requests to proceed in forma pauperis are granted. <sup>1</sup> 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a).

B. Screening of Plaintiff's Complaints

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2), the court is directed to dismiss the case at any time if it determines the allegation of poverty is untrue, or if the action is frivolous or malicious, fails to state a claim on which relief may be granted, or seeks monetary relief against an immune defendant. In reviewing each of the above captioned complaints under this standard, it is apparent that they must be dismissed.

12 Although pro se pleadings are liberally construed, see Haines v. Kerner, 404 U.S. 519, 13 520-21 (1972), a complaint, or portion thereof, should be dismissed for failure to state a claim if it 14 fails to set forth "enough facts to state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face." Bell Atl. 15 Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 554, 562-563 (2007) (citing Conley v. Gibson, 355 U.S. 41 16 (1957)); see also Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6). "[A] plaintiff's obligation to provide the 'grounds' of 17 his 'entitlement to relief' requires more than labels and conclusions, and a formulaic recitation of 18 a cause of action's elements will not do. Factual allegations must be enough to raise a right to 19 relief above the speculative level on the assumption that all of the complaint's allegations are 20 true." Id. (citations omitted). Dismissal is appropriate based either on the lack of cognizable 21 legal theories or the lack of pleading sufficient facts to support cognizable legal theories. 22 Balistreri v. Pacifica Police Dep't, 901 F.2d 696, 699 (9th Cir. 1990). 23 The court must accept as true the allegations of the complaint in question, Hospital Bldg.

<sup>1</sup> In Maxey v. Condoleezza Rice, No. 2:14-cv-435-MCE-CKD PS, plaintiff did not file a motion to proceed in forma pauperis. Since plaintiff has moved to proceed in forma pauperis in the other 42 cases currently before the court, and has made the showing required by 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(1) and (2) in each of those cases, the court will permit plaintiff to proceed in forma

Co. v. Rex Hosp. Trustees, 425 U.S. 738, 740 (1976), construe the pleading in the light most 28 pauperis in Maxey v. Condoleezza Rice, No. 2:14-cv-435-MCE-CKD PS.

favorable to the plaintiff, and resolve all doubts in the plaintiff's favor, Jenkins v. McKeithen, 395 U.S. 411, 421 (1969). A pro se plaintiff must satisfy the pleading requirements of Rule 8(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Rule 8(a)(2) "requires a complaint to include a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief, in order to give the defendant fair notice of what the claim is and the grounds upon which it rests." Bell Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 554, 562-563 (2007) (citing Conley v. Gibson, 355 U.S. 41 (1957)).

7 Here, as with the other 98 actions plaintiff has filed with this court, the complaints filed in 8 the 45 above-entitled actions are frivolous. See Maxey v. Cal. State Bar Assn., 2:14-cv-133-JAM-9 EFB PS, ECF Nos. 3, 5; Maxey v. Cal. Medical Bd., No. 2:14-cv-238-JAM-EFB PS, ECF Nos. 3, 10 4; Maxey v. McConnell, No. 2:14-cv-269-JAM-EFB PS, ECF Nos. 3, 4. Between February 5, 11 2014, and February 10, 2014, plaintiff filed 43 of the 45 above-entitled actions. In each of these 12 43 cases, plaintiff filed one of two different complaints; the complaints of each version having 13 nearly the same text as the others of that version. Both versions allege that plaintiff's claims arise 14 from "plaintiff being deprived the most basic rights guaranteed by the California and United 15 States Constitution and statutory law."

16 In one version, plaintiff asserts claims styled as: "Corrupt Organization, Insurance Fraud 17 and Fraudulent Misrepresentation." In this version, he contends that he suffered injury due to the 18 actions of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, George W. Bush, Janet Scully, and Arnold 19 Schwarzenegger. He claims that these individual, along with various federal, state, and local 20 agencies "illegally acquired monetary compensation based upon the U.S. Department of 21 Homeland Security, Fox News Channel and Ruppert [sic] Murdoch['s] fraudulent 22 misrepresentation of the plaintiff as being 'Osama Bin Laden.'" Plaintiff seeks "monetary 23 compensation for wrongful violations of human rights, civil rights, privacy rights, harassment, intimidation, coercion, blackmail, physical assault, attempted murder, false arrest, false 24 25 conviction, false imprisonment and criminal conspiracy to commit murder." 26 In the other version of the complaints, plaintiff asserts claims styled as: "(1) Corrupt

Organization, Insurance Fraud, Fraudulent Misrepresentation, Blackmail, Attempted Murder and
'Gay Marriage;'" (2) "Defamation of Character, Fraudulent Misrepresentation, and Slander;" and 1 (3) "Voter Fraud, Insurance fraud, Fraudulent Misrepresentation, Coercion, and Blackmail." 2 Plaintiff also alleges that various individuals and federal, state, and local government agencies 3 illegally acquired monetary compensation by misrepresenting that plaintiff was Osama Bin 4 Laden. Plaintiff further alleges that "[t]he defendants criminally slandered and fraudulently misrepresented the plaintiff to be a homosexual for the purpose of a United States Supreme Court 5 6 decision permitting 'gay marriage.'" He also alleges that various agencies and organizations, in 7 conjunction with former Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger and Governor Jerry Brown, violated 8 his "human, privacy, and civil rights under the United States Constitution." Plaintiff claims that 9 the named defendants "criminally slandered and caused immeasurable injury to the plaintiff's 10 reputation and good name." He also alleges that the named defendants harassed, intimidated, 11 coerced, blackmailed, physically assaulted, falsely arrested, and falsely convicted plaintiff as part 12 of a conspiracy to suppress his constitutional rights.

In addition to these 43 complaints, plaintiff has two other cases pending. These other two do not utilize either of the two versions of complaints discussed above. Nonetheless, they also must be dismissed as frivolous.

16 In the first action, Maxey v. United States of America, 2:13-cv-2620-TLN-DAD, plaintiff 17 alleges that Kaiser Permanente Hospital and various staff members illegally provided his 18 psychiatric medical records to the defendants, which include the United States of America, the 19 United Kingdom, the Sacramento Kings Professional Basketball team, Halliburton U.S.A., Bel 20 Air Supermarkets, Inc., and Chevron Gasoline Inc., just to name a few. He also claims that in 21 February 2013 he was wrongly arrested for driving under the influence and that in July 2013, 22 police officers came to his home and "illegally interrogated the plaintiff as to whether or not he 23 had taken his medication." Two days after this interrogation, police allegedly came to plaintiff's 24 home after he was assaulted by another individual and accused plaintiff of staging a fight scene. 25 Plaintiff also claims that he was arrested by two police officers in August 2013, but instead of 26 taking plaintiff to jail they took him to a hospital emergency room without being charged for a 27 crime. ECF No. 1 at 5-8. Plaintiff also claims in this complaint that he was wrongfully 28 discharged form his employment from Sierra College in December 2003. After his discharge, plaintiff allegedly "became the symbol of a social cause contrary to the 'Defense of Marriage Act." He was also misclassified as a terrorist by the Bush Administration, and has since been "harassed, intimidated, physically assaulted, falsely arrested, falsely convicted, falsely imprisoned, blackmailed and coerced by" George Bush, Daniel Lungren, Queen Elizabeth, former governor Gray Davis, and individuals from various television stations, among others. Id. at 13 14.

In the remaining case, Maxey v. United States, 2:14-cv-900-JAM-KJN, plaintiff alleges that in 1969, the United States government, in conjunction with the United Kingdom, implanted into plaintiff's body a satellite instrument to monitor his whereabouts. In this case he also alleges, in conclusory fashion, that he has been threatened, defamed, and subjected to violence.
Plaintiff seeks an order requiring defendants to remove the satellite device from his body.

Finally, in Maxey v. United States of America, 2:13-cv-2620-TLN-DAD PS, plaintiff filed a motion for a preliminary injunction. ECF No. 4. Given that the complaint in that action must be dismissed as frivolous, plaintiff necessarily has not met the standards for a preliminary injunction and the motion must be denied. See Stormans, Inc. v. Selecky, 586 F.3d 1109, 1109 (9th Cir. 2009) (In order to be entitled to a preliminary injunction, a party must demonstrate, among other things, "that he is likely to succeed on merits. . . .").

18 Plaintiff has now filed 143 complaints that provide no clue as to what cause of action is 19 being asserted against what defendant. Apart from the sheer number of seemingly delusional 20 complaints filed by plaintiff, his complaints name many different defendants who--as best as can 21 be gleaned from the complaints--appear to have nothing to do with plaintiff, including the 22 National Basketball Association, the National Football League, Donald Rumsfeld, Condoleezza 23 Rice, and the San Diego International Airport, just to name a few. Plaintiff's allegations include 24 conclusory and unexplained assertions that the defendants in each case blackmailed, falsely 25 imprisoned, defamed his name, and physically assaulted him. However, the complaints do not 26 contain specific factual allegations showing any particular cause of action as to any particular defendant. Nor do his complaints show how this court would have subject matter jurisdiction 27 28 over any such claim. Given the failure of the complaints to establish or even suggest a legally

1 cognizable claim, the court finds that all of plaintiff's above-captioned complaints are frivolous. 2 See Denton v. Hernandez, 504 U.S. 25, 32-33 (1992) (observing that a court has the "power to 3 pierce the veil of the complaint's factual allegations and dismiss those claims whose factual 4 contentions are clearly baseless," which includes "claims describing fantastic or delusional 5 scenarios."). Accordingly, all of the above-entitled actions must be dismissed without leave to 6 amend pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2). Noll v. Carlson, 809 F.2d 1446, 1448 (9th Cir. 1987) 7 (While the court ordinarily would permit a pro se plaintiff to amend, leave to amend should not 8 be granted where it appears amendment would be futile).

9 To date, 98 of plaintiff's actions have been dismissed as frivolous. See Maxey v. Cal. 10 State Bar Assn., 2:14-cv-133-JAM-EFB PS, ECF Nos. 3, 5; Maxey v. Cal. Medical Bd., No. 2:14-11 cv-238-JAM-EFB PS, ECF Nos. 3, 4; Maxey v. McConnell, No. 2:14-cv-269-JAM-EFB PS, ECF 12 Nos. 3, 4. Adjudication of these 98 cases, plus the 45 cases currently pending before the court, 13 has required court staff to avert attention from other actions in a district with a severely impacted 14 caseload to attend to plaintiff's numerous complaints which have proven to be patently 15 frivolously. The court cannot tolerate the waste of its limited resources in this manner. 16 Accordingly, plaintiff is admonished that any further filing of a complaint or pleading by plaintiff 17 which is found to be frivolous will result in a recommendation that he be declared a vexatious 18 litigant and that filing restrictions be imposed. See Weissman v. Quail Lodge, Inc., 179 F.3d 19 1197, 1197 (9th Cir. 1999) ("District courts have the inherent power to file restrictive pre-filing 20 orders against vexatious litigants with abusive and lengthy histories of litigation."). 21 Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that: 22 1. The above-entitled actions are reassigned to Judge Mendez and Magistrate Judge 23 Brennan for all further proceedings. 24 2. Plaintiff's requests for leave to proceed in forma pauperis, filed in the above-entitled 25 actions, are granted subject to the recommendation below. 26 3. The Clerk is directed to file a copy of this order and findings and recommendations in 27 the above-entitled cases. 28 /////

1	Further, it is RECOMMENDED that:
2	1. Plaintiff's motion for a preliminary injunction in Maxey v. United States of America,
3	2:13-cv-2620-TLN-DAD PS, ECF No. 4, be denied;
4	2. Plaintiff's complaints filed in the above-entitled cases be dismissed without leave to
5	amend; and
6	3. The Clerk be directed to close the above-entitled cases.
7	These findings and recommendations are submitted to the United States District Judge
8	assigned to the case, pursuant to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(l). Within fourteen days
9	after being served with these findings and recommendations, any party may file written
10	objections with the court and serve a copy on all parties. Such a document should be captioned
11	"Objections to Magistrate Judge's Findings and Recommendations." Failure to file objections
12	within the specified time may waive the right to appeal the District Court's order. Turner v .
