26 During the pendency of this case, counsels for the parties have worked diligently to

1 prepare their cases in accordance with the Court's Pretrial Scheduling Order issued on July 2 22, 2015. Despite the parties' best efforts, the parties still have to work through 3 preliminary written discovery Responses and scheduling depositions of the 5 litigation cannot adequately be completed without the information from these 6 key depositions.

8 As such, the parties cannot conduct a meaningful Settlement Conference until 9 preliminary written discovery Responses and depositions have been completed.

10 Based on the foregoing, the parties respectfully request that this Court
