UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

JENICE BURKITT,

                                Plaintiff,

          v.

METLIFE AUTO & HOME
METROPOLITAN PROPERTY & CASUALTY INSURANCE Co., and DOES 1 through 20, inclusive

                                Defendant.

No. 2:14-cv-01294 JAM KJN

ORDER GRANTING DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO DISMISS

This matter is before the Court on Defendant Metropolitan Property and Casualty Insurance Company's ("Defendant") Motion to Dismiss (Doc. #3) Plaintiff Jenice Burkitt's ("Plaintiff") Complaint (Doc. #1). Plaintiff opposes the motion (Doc. #7) and Defendant filed a reply (Doc. #9). For the following reasons, Defendant's motion is GRANTED.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> This motion was determined to be suitable for decision without oral argument. E.D. Cal. L.R. 230(g). The hearing was scheduled for July 23, 2014.

1 I. FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

2 Plaintiff is an individual resident of Oklahoma. Compl.
3 ¶ 2. Defendant is an insurance company registered and licensed
4 in California. Compl. ¶ 2. Plaintiff purchased an auto 5 insurance policy from Defendant, effective November 27, 2008 to 6 May 27, 2009. Compl. ¶ 4. The subject policy was issued in 7 California. Compl. ¶ 2. On April 11, 2009, Plaintiff was 8 injured in a car accident. Compl. ¶ 7. Plaintiff initially 9 notified Defendant of her Medical Expense claim on May 8, 2009.
10 Compl. ¶ 8. However, in early 2010, Plaintiff's physicians 11 advised her that she needed lumbar surgery. Compl. ¶ 7. On 12 February 24, 2010, Plaintiff notified Defendant of this 13 additional Medical Expense claim. Compl. ¶ 8. Defendant "paid 14 Medical Expense benefits for other claims submitted by 15 Plaintiff," but "denied Plaintiff's request for the balance of 16 her Medical Expense policy with regards to the recommended 17 [lumbar] surgery" in writing, on March 1, 2010. Compl. ¶ 9. In 18 the March 1, 2010 letter, Defendant noted that, because 19 Plaintiff "has not yet incurred the medical expenses of a 20 surgery, we are unable to consider payment for the remainder of 21 the Medical Payment limits." Vaccarezza Dec., Ex. C.

22 Subsequent to the March 1, 2010 letter from Defendant,
23 Plaintiff underwent an Independent Medical Examination ("IME")
24 with Dr. Emily Friedman. Compl. ¶ 10. Dr. Friedman recommended
25 that Plaintiff undergo lumbar surgery. Compl. ¶ 10. On April 26 10, 2012, Plaintiff requested that Defendant reconsider pre-
27 payment for the lumbar surgery, in light of Dr. Friedman's 28 recommendation. Compl. ¶ 11. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant

1 "handled this Medical Expense claim in bad faith" because it
2 "knew of the extent and nature of Plaintiff's injuries and her 3 need for surgery, [but] refused to pay the balance of 4 Plaintiff's Medical Expense coverage in order for Plaintiff to 5 obtain the recommended surgery." Compl. ¶ 12.

6 On April 3, 2014, Plaintiff filed the Complaint (Doc. #1, 7 Ex. A) in Sacramento County Superior Court. On May 27, 2014, 8 Defendant filed the Notice of Removal (Doc. #1), alleging 9 diversity jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a). The Complaint
10 alleges one cause of action: (1) "Bad Faith: Breach of Contract 11 of Covenant of Good Faith and Fair Dealing."

12 13 II. OPINION

14 A. Judicial Notice

15 Defendant requests that the Court take judicial notice of 16 six documents, all of which relate to a separate state court
17 case between Plaintiff and Defendant, Jenice Burkitt v. MetLife 18 Auto & Home, et al., Sacramento County Superior Court, Case No.
19 34-2012-00122112: (1) Plaintiff's Complaint for Declaratory
20 Relief;
21 (2) Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment; (3) Plaintiff's
22 Opposition to Defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment;
23 (4) Defendant's Reply; (5) May 9, 2014 Minute Order/May 13, 2014 24 correspondence; and (6) Plaintiff's Request for Dismissal with 25 Prejudice. (Doc. #10).

26 Generally, the Court may not consider material beyond the 27 pleadings in ruling on a motion to dismiss. However, the Court 28 may take judicial notice of matters of public record, provided

1 that they are not subject to reasonable dispute. See, e.g., 2 Sherman v. Stryker Corp., 2009 WL 2241664 at *2 (C.D. Cal. 2009)
3 (citing Lee v. City of Los Angeles, 250 F.3d 668, 688 (9th Cir.
4 2001) and Fed. R. Evid. 201).

5 All six documents listed above are public court filings.
6 Furthermore, Plaintiff has not opposed Defendant's request, and 7 the documents are not subject to reasonable dispute. Therefore, 8 Defendant's request is GRANTED.

9 B. Discussion

10 Defendant argues that Plaintiff's first (and only) cause of 11 action for breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair 12 dealing should be dismissed because it is time barred. Mot. at 13 6. Specifically, Defendant contends that Plaintiff failed to 14 commence this action within two years of Defendant's March 1, 15 2010 letter, which was an unequivocal denial of Plaintiff's
16 claim. Mot. at 6-7. Plaintiff responds that the March 1, 2010 17 letter "was not an unequivocal denial since Defendant made the 18 representations that future payments made [sic] be made and 19 since in fact Plaintiff's Medical Expense claim remained ongoing 20 and active." Opp. at 5. Plaintiff also appears to argue that 21 developments subsequent to the March 1, 2010 letter indicate 22 that that letter was merely a tentative denial. Opp. at 6.

23 In diversity actions, federal courts apply the state law
24 statute of limitations. See Guar. Trust Co. of N.Y. v. York, 25 326 U.S. 99, 110 (1945) (noting that, "[a]s to consequences that 26 so intimately affect recovery or non-recovery a federal court in 27 a diversity case should follow State law"). The parties' 28 arguments in favor of and in opposition to the motion focus

1 primarily on a two year statute of limitations for Plaintiff's
2 claim for breach of the implied covenant of good faith and fair
3 dealing. Mot. at 6 (citing Cal. Civ. Proc. Code
4 § 335.1 and § 339.1). Opp. at 6. However, under California 5 law, "[a] claim for [breach of] the covenant of good faith and 6 fair dealing has a two year statute of limitations when it 7 sounds in tort, and a four-year statute of limitations if it
8 sounds in contract." Fehl v. Manhattan Ins. Grp., 2012 WL 10047
9 at *4 (N.D. Cal. Jan. 2, 2012) (citing Love v. Fire Ins. Exch., 10 221 Cal.App.3d 1136 (1990)). Nevertheless, the alleged March 1, 11 2010 denial occurred more than four years prior to Plaintiff's 12 filing of the Complaint on April 3, 2014. Accordingly, the 13 Court need not determine whether Plaintiff's claim sounds in 14 tort (2 year statute of limitations) or contract (4 year statute 15 of limitations). If the March 1, 2010 letter constituted an 16 unequivocal denial, then Plaintiff's claim is time-barred, even 17 under the more generous contract-based four year statute of 18 limitations.

19 Both parties agree that, for a bad faith claim against an 20 insurance company, the statute of limitations begins to run upon 21 the unequivocal denial of the insured's claim. Mot. at 7. Opp.
22 at 5. This is consistent with California law. See Migliore v.
23 Mid-Century Ins. Co., 97 Cal.App.4th 592, 604 (2002).

24 Accordingly, the central issue is whether the March 1, 2010
25 letter constituted an "unequivocal denial" of Plaintiff's claim.

26 Plaintiff alleges that she "requested the balance of her 27 Medical Expense policy on February 24, 2010," so that she could 28 use that money to fund her lumbar surgery. Compl. ¶ 8.

1 Plaintiff further alleges that, on March 1, 2010, "Defendants 2 denied Plaintiff's request for the balance of her Medical 3 Expense policy with regards to the recommended surgery." Compl.
4 ¶ 9. Thus, by the terms of Plaintiff's own complaint, the March 5 1, 2010 letter constituted a denial of Plaintiff's claim for 6 policy benefits for prospective lumbar surgery. This allegation
7 is consistent with the language of the March 1, 2010 letter, 8 which stated:

9 "As Ms. Burkitt has not yet incurred the medical 10 expenses of a surgery, we are unable to consider 11 payment for the remainder of the Medical Payment 12 limits. However, if she obtains the surgery within 13 the three year Medical Payment time limit, please 14 forward the bills and records and we will review for 15 any applicable payment at that time." Vaccarezza
16 Dec., Ex. C.

17 The Court finds that this letter unequivocally denies 18 Plaintiff's request that Defendant pay for medical services not 19 yet incurred. Accordingly, the statute of limitations for 20 Plaintiff's bad faith insurance claim began to run on March 1, 21 2010.

22 The Court does not find persuasive Plaintiff's argument
23 that the March 1, 2010 letter was not an unequivocal denial.
24 Although Plaintiff notes that "Defendant had continued to 25 process and pay out Medical Expense benefits to Plaintiff," 26 these payments were for undisputed expenses already incurred.
27 Opp. at 5. The disputed claim for coverage of Plaintiff's 28 future lumbar surgery was separate and distinct from her approved claims for coverage of already-incurred medical expenses. The terms of Plaintiff's own Complaint set the scope for her bad faith insurance claim: "Defendants paid Medical

1 Expense benefits for other claims submitted by Plaintiff, 2 however, at issue is Defendants' failure to tender the remaining 3 Medical Expense coverage based on Plaintiff's need to undergo 4 lumbar surgery." Therefore, Defendant's continued payment of 5 the undisputed claims does not affect the denial of Plaintiff's 6 disputed claim for expenses not yet incurred.

7 Moreover, Plaintiff's citation to Migliore is misplaced.
8 Opp. at 5 (citing Migliore v. Mid-Century Ins. Co., 97 9 Cal.App.4th 592, 605 (2002)). Plaintiff contends that Migliore 10 stands for the proposition that an unequivocal denial must 11 unambiguously rule out any possibility that further benefits 12 will be provided on the disputed claim. Opp. at 5. In 13 Migliore, the court concluded that an insurer's letter was an 14 unequivocal denial, in part because it stated that "no further 15 benefits will be provided beyond those previously paid." 16 Migliore, 97 Cal.App.4th at 605. However, the letter in 17 Migliore also contained the following language: "This decision 18 is based upon the information available to us at this time. If 19 you have any other information which you believe may effect
20 [sic] Mid-Century Insurance Company's decision on your claim, 21 please let us know so we can consider it." Migliore, 97 22 Cal.App.4th at 599. In the case at bar, Defendant's offer in 23 the March 1, 2010 letter to review additional bills and records
24 "if [Plaintiff] obtains the surgery within the three year 25 Medical Payment time limit" is analogous to the language in the 26 Migliore letter. It is well settled California law that "a 27 statement of willingness to reconsider [a denial upon receipt of 28 further pertinent information] does not render a denial

1 equivocal." Migliore, 97 Cal.App.4th at 605 (citing Singh v.
2 Allstate Ins. Co., 63 Cal.App.4th 135, 147-48 (1998)). The 3 March 1, 2010 letter was unequivocal in its denial of 4 Plaintiff's request to pre-pay benefits before the particular 5 medical expenses were incurred.

6 Finally, Plaintiff's subsequent Independent Medical 7 Examination ("IME") - and Defendant's consideration of the IME
8 recommendations - does not transform the March 1, 2010 letter 9 into an equivocal statement. Recently, the Ninth Circuit held 10 that an insurer's reopening of a claim to consider additional 11 information does not reset the statute of limitations. Gordon
12 v. Deloitte & Touche, LLP Grp. Long Term Disability Plan, 749
13 F.3d 746, 751 (9th Cir. 2014). The court noted that such a rule 14 "would discourage reconsideration by insurers even when 15 reconsideration might be warranted." Gordon, 749 F.3d at 751.
16 Rather, the statute of limitations continues to run as long as 17 the insurer demonstrates "a clear and continuing repudiation of 18 a claimant's rights[.]" Gordon, 749 F.3d at 750. In the 19 present case, Defendant never wavered from its position that it 20 would not provide payments for medical expenses not yet
21 incurred. Accordingly, Plaintiff's IME and Defendant's 22 consideration of the IME recommendations did not reset the 23 statute of limitations.

24 Plaintiff filed the Complaint on April 3, 2014, over four 25 years after the unequivocal denial of her claim in the March 1, 26 2010 letter. Accordingly, Plaintiff's first and only cause of 27 action is time barred and Defendant's Motion to Dismiss is 28 GRANTED WITH PREJUDICE. As Defendant's statute of limitations

1 argument is dispositive, the Court need not reach Defendant's 2 remaining arguments.

III. ORDER

For the reasons set forth above, the Court GRANTS WITH PREJUDICE Defendant's Motion to Dismiss:

IT IS SO ORDERED.
