of time to respond to the Class Action Complaint ("Complaint"). Leidos is mindful of this Court's amended order, but believes the Court would want to be apprised of this development.

Leidos's response to the Complaint currently is due on November 17, 2014. As the JPML will consider whether to transfer this case during its December 4, 2014 calendar, and will issue its decision thereafter, Leidos believes that judicial efficiency would best be served by permitting the JPML to determine the proper venue for this case prior to the filing and briefing of a motion to dismiss in this Court. Leidos therefore respectfully requests . . . [the referenced] extension order . . . .

(Id. at 1:25-2:11.)

Leidos's extension request is granted. The time for all Defendants to respond to the Complaint is extended until 28 days following a final determination by the JPML on whether to reopen MDL No. 2360 and transfer this action to the United States District Court for the District of the District of Columbia.

Dated: November 5, 2014
