UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

DURRELL ANTHONY PUCKETT,
Plaintiff,
v.
A. AGBOLI, et al.,
Defendants.

No. 2:14-cv-2776 CMK P

ORDER

Plaintiff is a state prisoner proceeding pro se and in forma pauperis in this action seeking relief pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

On December 9, 2016, the court ordered the United States Marshal to serve process upon the defendant in this case. The Marshal was directed to attempt to secure a waiver of service before attempting personal service on defendant. If a waiver of service was not returned within sixty days, the Marshal was directed to effect personal service on the defendant in accordance with the provisions of Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and 28 U.S.C. § 566(c), without prepayment of costs, and to file the return of service with evidence of any attempt to secure a waiver of service and with evidence of all costs subsequently incurred in effecting personal service.

On May 30, 2017, the United States Marshal filed a return of service with a USM-285 form showing total charges of $235.40 for effecting personal service on defendant Lynch. The

1 form shows that a waiver of service form was mailed to the defendant on January 24, 2017, and
2 that no response was received.

3 Rule 4(d) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provides, in pertinent part, as follows:

4 An individual, corporation, or association that is subject to service
5 under Rule 4(e), (f), or (h) has a duty to avoid unnecessary
6 expenses of serving the summons. . . .

7 If a defendant located within the United States fails, without good
8 cause, to sign and return a waiver requested by a plaintiff located
9 within the United States, the court must impose on the defendant:

10 (A) the expenses later incurred in making service; and

11 (B) the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, of any 12 motion required to collect those service expenses.

13 Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(d)(1), (2)(A), (B).

14 The court finds that defendant Lynch was given the opportunity required by Rule 4(d) to 15 waive service and has failed to comply with the request.

16 Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

17 1. Within fourteen days from the date of this order defendant Lynch shall pay to the 18 United States Marshal the sum of $235.40, unless within that time defendant files a written 19 statement showing good cause for his failure to waive service. The court does not intend to 20 extend this fourteen day period.

21 2. The Clerk of the Court is directed to serve a copy of this order on the U.S. Marshal.

22 Dated: April 26, 2018
