

1 involving plaintiff and all of Mr. Conrad's properties should be pursued at another
2 settlement conference.

3 2. Assuming that the parties are agreeable to pursuing such a global resolution and 4 settlement, the joint status report shall address:

5 a. Which parties, counsel, and other persons should be present at the future
6 settlement conference.

7 b. What preliminary matters should be accomplished prior to such a settlement
8 conference, including the timing for such matters.

9 c. Whether the parties have had any preliminary discussions regarding the 10 structure of a potential global resolution and settlement, such as a possible
11 consent decree, or any other matters that may help to streamline the settlement
12 conference.

13 d. Proposed dates for a settlement conference within 60 days after the filing of the 14 joint status report.

15 3. This action is temporarily stayed for 75 days. Although the parties at the settlement
16 conference also agreed to stay the action of Johnson v. Conrad et al., 2:14-cv-596-
17 MCE-EFB, that action has already been stayed by order of Judge England (see id., 18 ECF No. 20) and thus remains subject to Judge England's stay.

19 4. Based on the agreement of the parties at the May 22, 2015 settlement conference,
20 plaintiff shall not file any new lawsuits regarding Mr. Conrad's properties in the next 21 75 days.

22 5. The Clerk of Court shall file an additional copy of this order on the docket in the 23 action of Johnson v. Conrad et al., 2:14-cv-596-MCE-EFB.

24 IT IS SO ORDERED.

25 Dated: May 26, 2015
