

1 5. Cross-motions for judgment will be heard on June 16, 2017, at
2 10:00 A.M., in Courtroom No. 3.

3 ECF No. 16. On June 20, 2016, the parties objected to the court's order and requested the 4 following dates, which according to the parties' stipulation are sixty days later than those set by 5 the court's order:

6 a. The Administrative Record and the Plan documents shall be
7 provided to plaintiff by June 15, 2016 and filed with the Court on 8 October 15, 2016;

9 b. Plaintiff shall file any motion for permission to conduct
10 discovery on or before November 1, 2016;

11 c. Cross-motions for judgment shall be filed by each party no later
12 than April 17, 2017;

13 d. Each party may file a response brief opposing the other party's 14 Motion for Judgment no later than May 17, 2017; and

15 e. The Parties request a trial date/hearing on the cross-motions for 16 judgment of June 7, 2017.

17 ECF No. 17. These dates are not sixty later than those set by the court's order. With the 18 exception of the due date for cross-motions, they are the same or earlier. The dates allow for the 19 mediation the parties have scheduled. The court therefore overrules the parties' objections with 20 the following exception: the date by which cross-motions for judgment must be filed is 21 EXTENDED to April 17, 2017.

22 The parties' filings also suggest some confusion about the identity of the 23 Magistrate Judge assigned to this case. See ECF Nos. 5, 8, 13, 15, 17; but see ECF No. 11. The 24 Magistrate Judge assigned to this case is the Honorable Edmund F. Brennan.

25 IT IS SO ORDERED.

26 DATED: June 22, 2016

27
28

UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE