IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

PAUL LOUIS BLANK,
Plaintiff,

No. 2:16-cv-2422-JAM-CMK

vs.

ORDER

WELLS FARGO BANK,
Defendant.

Plaintiff, proceeding pro se, brings this civil action. On May 25, 2017, the court directed plaintiff to file an amended complaint within 30 days. Plaintiff was warned that failure to file an amended complaint may result in dismissal of this action for lack of prosecution and failure to comply with court rules and orders. See Local Rule 110. To date, plaintiff has not complied.

In addition, on July 19, 2017, mail directed to plaintiff was returned by the United States Postal Service as undeliverable. Pursuant to Eastern District of California Local Rule 183(b), any party appearing pro se must file and serve a notice of change of address within 63 days of mail being returned. To date, more than 63 days have elapsed since mail was returned and plaintiff has not notified the court of a change of address.

The court must weigh five factors before imposing the harsh sanction of dismissal. See Bautista v. Los Angeles County, 216 F.3d 837, 841 (9th Cir. 2000); Malone v. U.S. Postal Service, 833 F.2d 128, 130 (9th Cir. 1987). Those factors are: (1) the public's interest in expeditious resolution of litigation; (2) the court's need to manage its own docket; (3)

1 the risk of prejudice to opposing parties; (4) the public policy favoring disposition of cases on
2 their merits; and (5) the availability of less drastic sanctions. See id.; see also Ghazali v. Moran,
3 46 F.3d 52, 53 (9th Cir. 1995) (per curiam). A warning that the action may be dismissed as an
4 appropriate sanction is considered a less drastic alternative sufficient to satisfy the last factor.
5 See Malone, 833 F.2d at 132-33 & n.1. The sanction of dismissal for lack of prosecution is 6 appropriate where there has been unreasonable delay. See Henderson v. Duncan, 779 F.2d 1421,
7 1423 (9th Cir. 1986). Dismissal has also been held to be an appropriate sanction for failure to 8 comply with an order to file an amended complaint. See Ferdik v. Bonzelet, 963 F.2d 1258,
9 1260-61 (9th Cir. 1992).

10 Having considered these factors, and in light of plaintiff's failure to file an 11 amended complaint as directed and failure to file notice of change of address, the undersigned
12 finds that dismissal of this action is appropriate.

13 Based on the foregoing, the undersigned recommends that this action be 14 dismissed, without prejudice, for lack of prosecution and failure to comply with court rules and 15 orders.

16 These findings and recommendations are submitted to the United States District
17 Judge assigned to the case, pursuant to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). Within 14 days
18 after being served with these findings and recommendations, any party may file written 19 objections with the court. Responses to objections shall be filed within 14 days after service of 20 objections. Failure to file objections within the specified time may waive the right to appeal.
21 See Martinez v. Ylst, 951 F.2d 1153 (9th Cir. 1991).
