

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

SCOTT JOHNSON,

Plaintiff,

v.

ROBERT HALK; MICHELLE HALK-
HODGKIN, and DOES 1-10,

Defendants.

No. 2:16-cv-2794-KJM-KJN

ORDER

After both parties missed their joint status report filing deadline, the court issued an order to show cause (“OSC”) within seven days why the case should not be dismissed or the parties sanctioned. Order, April 12, 2017, ECF No. 11. The parties filed a joint status report the same day the court issued the OSC. ECF No. 12. Then, one week later, both parties responded to the court’s OSC with a detailed explanation for the missed deadline. ECF No. 13, 14. Accordingly, the court DISCHARGES the order to show cause. Noncompliance with the court’s future orders, however, will not be met with such leniency.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED: April 26, 2017.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE