STIPULATION AND ORDER STAYING GARNISHMENT PROCEEDINGS

Criminal Case No: 2:12-CR-00306-JAM

NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
Garnishee.

I. BACKGROUND

This civil action for Writ of Garnishment arises from an order of restitution issued in Case No. 2:12-cr-00306-JAM. An Indictment returned on August 23, 2012, charged defendant Kirit Patel with mail and wire fraud pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§1341 and 1343.

111

1           Prior to the Indictment, on April 3, 2012, the Federal Trade Commission
2 filed a civil complaint against Mr. Patel in Case No. 2:12-cv-00855-JAM-DAD. A
3 stipulated judgment, reflecting the settlement agreement reached between Mr.
4 Patel and the FTC, was issued on September 10, 2015. As part of the judgment,
5 Mr. Patel was ordered to pay the FTC $72,002.00 from his personal bank
6 accounts, and to release an additional $503,089.00 from accounts held in BGM's
7 name. Mr. Patel promptly made the payments.

8           A plea agreement in Case No. 2:12-cr-00306-JAM was filed on October 14,
9 2014, and Mr. Patel pled guilty to two counts each of mail and wire fraud. The 10 Agreement directs that “[a]ny restitution paid by this defendant pursuant to the 11 civil lawsuit Federal Trade Commission v. Broadway Global Master, et al, 2:12-cv-
12 00855-JAM-DAD will be credited against restitution owed by this defendant under 13 this agreement.” A restitution hearing was held on October 27, 2015. The Court
14 issued a restitution Order on November 9, 2015, in the amount of $106,443.45.
15 The Order states that the restitution amount is to be “credited, as permitted under 16 18 U.S.C. §3664(j)(2)(A), to reflect any restitution that the same victim receives in 17 the future on account of the settlement of civil case 2:12-cv-855-JAM.”

18           On January 26, 2016, the U.S. Attorney filed Case No. 2:16-mc-00012-
19 JAM-KJN, seeking a writ of garnishment to satisfy the restitution obligation.

20           It is the parties' understanding that the FTC has nearly completed the task
21 of processing the settlement payments and final tally regarding those payments is 22 expected to be available once that process concludes.

23           II.     STIPULATION

24           In light of the circumstances set forth herein above, the defendant, KIRIT
25 PATEL, through his counsel of record, Emily E. Doringer and plaintiff United 26 States of America, through its counsel, Assistant United States Attorney Kurt A.
27 Didier, agree and stipulate that the action for Writ of Garnishment, Case No. 2:16-
28 mc-00012-JAM-KJN, shall be stayed for a period of 30 days. The purpose of the

1 stay is to allow the parties additional time necessary to communicate with the
2 Federal Trade Commission concerning the final allocation of settlement payments
3 in Case No. 2:12-cv-00855-JAM-DAD and to determine how those payments
4 affect the remaining restitution balance owed in Case No. 2:12-cr-00306-JAM,
5 and subject to garnishment in Case No. 2:16-mc-00012-JAM-KJN.
