23 DONALD WRIGHT, M.D., M.P.H.,¹ in his official capacity as Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services, 24

Defendant.
25

Case No. 2:17-cv-00074-TLN-KJN

STIPULATION AND PROPOSED PROTECTIVE ORDER

26
27 _____
28 ¹ By operation of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 25(d), Secretary Wright is automatically substituted in lieu of his predecessor in office as the defendant in this action.

1 STIPULATION AND PROPOSED PROTECTIVE ORDER

2 IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED, by and between Plaintiff Prime Healthcare Services – Shasta, 3 LLC, and Defendant Donald Wright, M.D., M.P.H., through their undersigned counsel and subject to 4 Court approval, that the following Protective Order shall govern the handling of confidential information
5 contained in the Certified Administrative Record in this action (the “CAR”).

6 I. Purposes and Limitations

7 The CAR contains confidential and private information for which special protection is warranted 8 to prohibit public disclosure and use for any purpose other than prosecuting and defending this action.
9 Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate and request that the Court enter the following Protective Order.

10 The parties acknowledge that this Protective Order does not confer blanket protections and that 11 the protection it affords extends only to the information or items entitled to confidential treatment under 12 applicable legal principles. The parties also acknowledge that the Protective Order does not entitle them 13 to file confidential information under seal. Rather, the parties must seek permission from the Court and 14 comply with Local Rule 141 and any applicable orders issued by the assigned District Judge and 15 Magistrate Judge.

16 II. Good Cause Statement

17 The CAR contains information that may be subject to limitations on disclosure under federal 18 law, state law, and privileges or privacy rights concerning the disclosure of confidential personal and 19 medical information. To protect this confidential and private information while ensuring that the parties 20 have reasonable and necessary use of material relevant to this action, to address the handling of this 21 information after resolution of this action, and to serve the ends of justice, the following Protective 22 Order is warranted.

23 III. Confidential Health Information

24 As noted, the CAR contains documents and information with individually identifiable health 25 information, i.e., health information that is connected to an individual’s name, address, social security 26 number, or other identifying number or label. Such information may be subject to the provisions of the 27 Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552a, the HIPAA Privacy and Security Rule, 45 C.F.R. Parts 160, 162, 164, or 28 the provisions of 42 U.S.C. § 1306. Defendant may provide the information to Plaintiff in an unredacted

1 form. The parties shall not file these documents or information, submit them to the Court, or reproduce
2 their contents in any court filing unless the information is submitted for filing under seal or all 3 information that would identify the person or persons who are the subject of the document or 4 information has been removed or redacted.

5 IV. Scope

6 This Protective Order covers not only the CAR itself, but also (1) any information copied or 7 extracted from the CAR, (2) copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of the CAR, (3) testimony, 8 conversations, or presentations that might reveal the contents of the CAR.

9 V. Duration

10 After the final disposition of this action, the confidentiality obligations imposed by this 11 Protective Order shall remain in effect unless the parties otherwise agree in writing or the Court
12 otherwise directs. Final disposition shall be the later of (1) dismissal of all claims and defenses in this 13 action, with or without prejudice, and (2) final judgment after completion and exhaustion of all appeals,
14 rehearings, remands, trials, or reviews, including the time limits for filing any motions or applications 15 for extensions of time pursuant to applicable law.

16 VI. Access to and Use of the Certified Administrative Record

17 The parties may use the CAR only for prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this action.
18 The CAR may be disclosed only to the persons and under the conditions described in this Protective 19 Order. After final disposition of this action, any recipient of the CAR must comply with the provisions 20 of Section XI, below. The CAR must be stored and maintained at a location and in a secure manner that 21 ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this Protective Order.

22 VII. Disclosure of the Certified Administrative Record

23 Unless otherwise ordered by the Court or otherwise agreed in writing by the parties, the CAR 24 may be disclosed only to:

- 25 (1) a party's counsel of record in this action, as well as employees of counsel of record to 26 whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the CAR to prosecute or defend this action;

- 1 (2) a party's officers, directors, and employees who have received a copy of this Protective
- 2 Order and to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the CAR to prosecute or defend
- 3 this action;
- 4 (3) a party's experts who have received a copy of this Protective Order and to whom it is
- 5 reasonably necessary to disclose the CAR to prosecute or defend this action; and
- 6 (4) the Court and its personnel.

7 VIII. Subpoenas or Orders for Producing the Certified Administrative Record

8 If a party is served with a subpoena or court order issued in other litigation compelling disclosure 9 of any information or material in the CAR, that party must:

- 10 (1) promptly notify in writing the other parties and provide a copy of the subpoena or court
- 11 order;
- 12 (2) promptly notify in writing the person or entity causing the subpoena or other order to
- 13 issue in the other litigation that some or all of the information or material sought by the
- 14 subpoena or order is subject to this Protective Order, and include a copy of this Protective
- 15 Order;
- 16 (3) cooperate with the other party in this action with respect to all reasonable procedures
- 17 pursued, including refraining from disclosing information or material sought by the
- 18 subpoena or order pending a court determination where the other party in this action has
- 19 timely sought a protective order or moved to quash the subpoena, unless otherwise
- 20 required by law or court order or authorized by the other party's express permission.

21 IX. Unauthorized Disclosure of the Certified Administrative Record

22 If a party learns that it has disclosed information or material from the CAR to any person or in 23 any circumstance not authorized under this Order, that party must immediately:

- 24 (1) notify in writing the other party in this case of the unauthorized disclosure;
- 25 (2) use best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the information or material from the
- 26 CAR;
- 27 (3) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosure was made of all the terms
- 28 of this Order.

1 X. Filing the Certified Administrative Record

2 A party that seeks to file information or material from the CAR under seal must comply with 3 Local Rule 141 and any relevant orders of the assigned District Judge and Magistrate Judge. If a party
4 intends to file information or material from the CAR, it must provide sufficient notice to the other party 5 to allow that party to timely request to file the information or material at issue under seal.

6 XI. Final Disposition

7 Within 60 days of the final disposition of this action, as defined in Section V, above, Plaintiff
8 must return all copies of the CAR to Defendant or destroy such material. As used in this section, 9 “copies” include all abstracts, compilations, summaries, and any other format reproducing or capturing 10 any of the CAR. Whether the CAR is returned or destroyed, Plaintiff must submit a written certification
11 to Defendant within 60 days of the final disposition of this action affirming that Plaintiff has not retained 12 any copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries, or any other format reproducing or capturing any 13 portion of the CAR.

14 Notwithstanding the foregoing, counsel for the parties are entitled to retain an archival copy of 15 all pleadings, motion papers, hearing transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence, expert reports, 16 attorney work product, and consultant and expert work product, even if such materials contain 17 information or material from the CAR. Any such archival copies that contain information or material 18 from the CAR remain subject to this Protective Order as set forth in Section V.

19 XII. Disclosure to Agencies or Departments of the United States or the State of California

20 Nothing in this Order shall prevent or in any way limit or impair the right of the United States or 21 the State of California to disclose to any agency or department of the United States or the State of 22 California any information or material relating to any potential violation of law or regulation or relating 23 to any matter within the agency’s or department’s jurisdiction. Nor shall anything in this Order prevent 24 or in any way limit or impair the use of any information or material in any proceeding relating to any 25 potential violation of law or regulation, or relating to any matter within that agency’s or department’s 26 jurisdiction.

1 XIII. Disclosure to the United States Congress

2 Nothing in this Order shall prevent or in any way limit or impair the right of the United States to 3 provide information or material to a Congressional entity.

4 XIV. Modification

5 Nothing in this Order waives or otherwise affects the right of any person to seek its modification 6 by the Court in the future.
