

1 articulated any claim for relief. Id. Plaintiff states in her response that when she was employed
2 by defendant, she had a restraining order against her spouse, and her spouse told her that he had
3 affairs with the performers while the restraining order was active. ECF No. 9 at 7. This
4 information does not tell the court what plaintiff's legal claim is, and does not show that this court
5 has jurisdiction to hear this case. Further, plaintiff's responses are not an amended complaint.
6 Plaintiff is directed to file a new and complete complaint that articulates her claims and the basis
7 for this court's jurisdiction in accordance with Rule 8 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
8 Plaintiff is instructed to review the court's June 12, 2017 order for additional information on the 9 requirements for a proper complaint.

10 With respect to plaintiff's IFP application, the court found that plaintiff had not 11 demonstrated her inability to pay the filing fee. ECF No. 5 at 1. In her responses, plaintiff did 12 not include a renewed IFP application. ECF Nos. 9 and 10. She also has not paid the filing fee.

13 Therefore, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED Plaintiff shall have 30 days from the date of this 14 order to file an amended complaint that complies with the instructions given above, along with an 15 amended request for IFP status that adequately explains the circumstances of her poverty.
16 Alternatively, plaintiff may pay the filing fee. If plaintiff fails to timely comply with this order, 17 the undersigned will recommend that this action be dismissed.
