Bruno v. Equifax Credit Information Services, LLC, et al.

SECOND STIPULATED REQUEST AND [PROPOSED] ORDER

Pursuant to Local Rule 144, the undersigned parties submit this stipulated request to extend the deadlines set forth in the Court's order of July 11, 2018 (ECF No. 206) by an additional week.

On July 11, 2018, the Honorable Edmund F. Brennan heard argument on motions to compel brought by Plaintiff Daniel Bruno and Defendant Equifax Information Services LLC. No other parties filed related briefing or attended the hearing. During argument, counsel for Equifax initially estimated that a declaration regarding a specific category of privileged materials could be prepared within one week. Later in the hearing, the Court ordered Equifax to serve and file additional declarations discussing several more categories of privileged documents. On July 12, 2018, the Court entered the parties' Stipulation and Proposed Order which extended Equifax's deadline for submitting the declarations up to and including July 25, 2018. Given the need to prepare and file multiple declarations, that two of our declarants are unexpectedly unavailable this week, and subject to the Court's approval, Equifax and the plaintiff submit this stipulated request that:

Equifax's deadline for submitting the declarations ordered by the Court shall be extended by an additional week—until August 1, 2018—and that the plaintiff's deadline for serving and filing any response shall similarly be extended until August 22, 2018.

Respectfully Submitted,

Dated: July 19, 2018	/s/ Zachary A. McEntyre
