| 18 | The issue in this case is unlawful detainer, with an amount in controversy of less                |                           |
| 19 | than $1,000. See ECF No. 1. On April 10, 2017, defendant Cassandra Fields removed this case      |                           |
| 20 | from state court to federal court. Id. Additionally, defendant filed a motion to proceed in forma |                           |

| 22 | When a case "of which the district courts of the United States have original                      |                           |
| 23 | jurisdiction" is initially brought in state court, a defendant may remove it to federal court.    |                           |
| 24 | 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a). There are two bases for federal subject matter jurisdiction: (1) federal     |                           |
| 25 | question jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, and (2) diversity jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C.      |                           |
| 26 | § 1332. A federal district court may remand a case sua sponte where a defendant has not           |                           |
| 27 | established federal jurisdiction. See Enrich v. Touche Ross & Co., 846 F.2d 1190, 1195 (9th Cir.  |                           |
| 28 | 1988) (citing Wilson v. Republic Iron & Steel Co., 257 U.S. 92, 97 (1921)). "If at any time       |                           |
|    |   | 1                         |

| 1  | before final judgment it appears that the district court lacks subject matter jurisdiction, the case |

| 2  | shall be remanded." 28 U.S.C. § 1447(c).   |
| 3  | Here, the court finds the case should be remanded to the Solano County Superior                      |
| 4  | Court. Because the amount in controversy is less than $75,000, and the main issue turns on state    |
| 5  | law, removal is improper because this court does not have subject matter jurisdiction under 28       |
| 6  | U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1441.   |
| 7  | I. CONCLUSION   |
| 8  | This case is remanded to Solano County Superior Court. Defendant's IFP motion                        |
| 9  | is DENIED as MOOT.   |
| 10 | IT IS SO ORDERED.  |
