8	UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
9	FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
10
11	KEITH CANDLER,	No. 2:17-cv-01885 AC P
12	Plaintiff,
13	v.	ORDER
14	BAKER, et al.,
15	Defendants.
17	Defendants removed this action from the Sacramento County Superior Court to this
18	district on September 11, 2017. ECF No. 2. On September 20, 2017, plaintiff filed objections to
19	the notice of removal. ECF No. 5. In a single paragraph, plaintiff argues that his claims are
20	based on a "campaign of harassment" which the state courts are more suited to adjudicate and that
21	the state court has already issued a case management order. Id. Plaintiff does not explain why
22	the state courts are more suited to hear his harassment claims, nor does he cite any authority for
23	the proposition that a state court's issuance of a case management order deprives a federal court
24	of jurisdiction. The court screened plaintiff's complaint on September 13, 2017, and concluded
25	that he had brought at least one federal claim. ECF No. 4 at 2. Consequently, the court concludes
26	that it has jurisdiction over plaintiff's claims at this time. See Ultramar America, Ltd. v. Dwelle,
27	900 F.2d 1412, 1413-1414 (9th Cir. 1990) (federal question jurisdiction exists if at least one claim
28	in the complaint arises under federal law). If plaintiff believes that a remand of this case to state

2	That motion should cite legal authority which supports his arguments for remand.
3	SO ORDERED.

27	¹ A motion to remand based on any defect other than lack of subject matter jurisdiction must be made within thirty days of the filing of the notice of removal. See 28 U.S.C. § 1447(c). To the
28	extent plaintiff's remand arguments are not based on a lack of subject matter jurisdiction, the court will extend the deadline and grant him thirty days from the date of this order's entry.
