UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

ARAM MKRTCHYAN,

Plaintiff,

v.

SACRAMENTO COUNTY, CALIFORNIA,
a county government and the operator of the Sacramento County Sheriff's Department and its Correctional Health Services Division; and the following persons as individuals and in their capacity as officials, employees or contractors of Sacramento County; R.
SCOTT JONES; GRANT NUGENT;
DEPUTY DOMINGUEZ; DEPUTY YANG;
DEPUTY GROUT; DEPUTY MEIER, and DOES 1-40, inclusive,

CASE NO. 2:17-cv-02366 TLN-KJN

DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR ADMINISTRATIVE RELIEF
REQUESTING LEAVE FOR PAGE LIMIT INCREASE TO MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT; ORDER

Complaint Filed: 11/12/2017

1 Defendants COUNTY OF SACRAMENTO, SCOTT R. JONES, GRANT NUGENT,
2 DEPUTY DOMINGUEZ, DEPUTY YANG, DEPUTY GROUT, DEPUTY MEIER and NANCY
3 GALLAGHER (“Defendants”) file this motion for administrative relief and seek leave from the 4 Court to file a five (5) page limit extension to Defendants’ Motion for Summary Judgment.

5 Eastern District Local Rule 233 sets for the procedure for filing a motion for administrative 6 relief:

- 7 (1) must be labeled as a motion for administrative relief;
- 8 (2) may not exceed 5 pages (excluding declarations and exhibits);
- 9 (3) must set forth specifically the action requested, the reasons supporting the request, and relevant background information (such as a description of any similar relief that has previously been granted);
- 10 (4) must be accompanied by a proposed order;
- 11 (5) must include a statement setting forth the position of all parties affected by the motion, or a statement explaining why such position could not be ascertained; and
- 12 (6) if manually filed, must be delivered with all attachments on all parties on the same day
the motion is filed.

13 Furthermore, this Court’s Standing Orders set for the requirements for seeking a page limit
14 extension when filing a Motion for Summary Judgment.

15 Defendants seek a five (5) page extension to file Defendants’ Motion for Summary Judgment
16 because Plaintiff’s operative complaint contains 12 separate claims for relief—many of which are 17 asserted against 7 Defendants in total. The claims against the individual Defendants involve separate
18 and distinct actions over multiple months and Defendants Motion for Summary Judgment will need 19 to address each of the separate claims and distinct actions from each of the Defendants. To 20 sufficiently address the claims against each Defendant within the Motion for Summary Judgment, 21 Defendants need an additional five page extension (for a total of 25 pages) to file the Motion for 22 Summary Judgment. This is the first time Defendants’ have requested such relief.

23 The parties had a phone call prior to the filing of the motion and agree to a page limit
24 extension as long as Plaintiff is provided 25 pages to provide an Opposition to the Motion for 25 Summary Judgment. The parties also discussed Plaintiff’s filing his own separate Motion for 26 Summary Judgment. Finally, the parties agreed to use the June 2, 2022 hearing date for each parties
27 Motion for Summary Judgment.
