ORDER

On May 28, 2021, this matter came before the undersigned pursuant to Local Rule 302(c)(1) for hearing of the parties' joint motions for discovery. Attorney Rachel Luke appeared via Zoom on behalf of the plaintiffs. Attorneys Ashley Shively and Gary Halbert appeared via

1 Zoom on behalf of the defendant. Oral argument was heard and the motions were taken under 23 ¹ At the May 28, 2021 hearing, the parties' sought further guidance from the undersigned as to 24 "Plaintiffs' Proposed Order re Rule 35 Examinations" on Independent Medical Examinations of 25 the plaintiffs. The parties are advised that, absent an agreement by the parties, the court can only 26 order a Rule 35 examination "on motion for good cause" and which specifies the "the time, place, 27 manner, conditions, and scope of the examination, as well as the person or persons who will 28 perform it." Fed. R. Civ. P. 35(a)(2)(A)-(B). Moreover, the Joint Statements raise a number of individual disputes surrounding these examinations—length, method, recording, the presence of a third party, location, etc.—in a cursory manner. To properly resolve such issues more specific and elaborate briefing would be necessary. The same can be said of defendant's arguments concerning plaintiffs' non-compliant written discovery responses concerning the computation of damages.
