

1 to pro se litigants, that lenience does not extend to permitting sur-replies as a matter of course.
2 Garcia v. Biter, 195 F. Supp. 3d 1131, 1134 (E.D. Cal. 2016). This court is not generally inclined
3 to permit sur-replies absent an articulation of good cause why such leave should be granted. See 4 id.

5 Here, plaintiff does not set forth any reasons why he needs to file a sur-reply as to the 6 motion for summary judgment. Accordingly, the request for extension of time will be denied as to 7 the filing of a sur-reply to defendants' December 19, 2022, reply in support of their motion for 8 summary judgment.

9 The court will grant plaintiff the requested extension of time to file a reply to defendants'
10 opposition to the motion to amend.

11 Good cause appearing, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

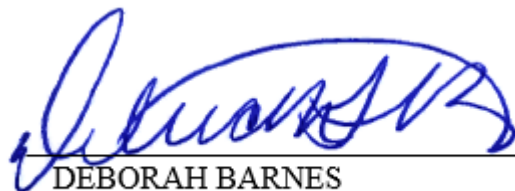

12 1. Plaintiff's motion for an extension of time (ECF No. 62) is granted in part and denied
13 in part, as set forth below.

14 2. Plaintiff is granted ninety days from the date of this order in which to file a reply to 15 defendants' opposition to plaintiff's motion to amend.

16 3. Plaintiff's request for an extension of time of ninety days to file a sur-reply to 17 defendants' reply in support of their motion for summary judgment is denied.
