1. A. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Discovery in this action is likely to involve production of confidential, 2 3 proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation may 4 5 be warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the Court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this 6 7 Order does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to 8 discovery and that the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends 9 only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment 10 under the applicable legal principles. The parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 12.3 (Filing Protected Material), below, that this Stipulated Protective 11 Order does not entitle them to file confidential information under seal; Civil Local 12 13 Rule 141 sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to file material under seal. 14

15 16

B. GOOD CAUSE STATEMENT

17 This action is likely to involve trade secrets, commercial, financial, medical, 18 insurance, and/or personally identifiable information for which special protection 19 from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecution of this action is warranted. Such confidential and proprietary materials and information 20 consist of, among other things, confidential personal and privileged records of the 21 parties' insureds collected and/or received in connection with the underlying 22 23 insurance claim (including information implicating privacy rights of the parties' 24 insureds and other third parties such as medical, financial, and personally 25 identifiable information), information otherwise generally unavailable to the public, or which may be privileged or otherwise protected from disclosure under state or 26 federal statutes, court rules, case decisions, or common law. Accordingly, to 27 28 expedite the flow of information, to facilitate the prompt resolution of disputes over confidentiality of discovery materials, to adequately protect information the parties are entitled and/or required to keep confidential, to ensure that the parties are permitted reasonable necessary uses of such material in preparation for and in the conduct of trial, to address their handling at the end of the litigation, and serve the 4 ends of justice, a protective order for such information is justified in this matter. It is the intent of the parties that information will not be designated as confidential for 6 7 tactical reasons and that nothing be so designated without a good faith belief that it 8 has been maintained in a confidential, non-public manner, and there is good cause 9 why it should not be part of the public record of this case.

2. DEFINITIONS

12 2.1 Action: Endurance Risk Solutions Assurance Company v. Travelers 13 Property Casualty Company of America, Case No. 2:22-cv-02304-KJM-KJN.

a Party or Non-Party that challenges the 14 2.2 Challenging Party: designation of information or items under this Order. 15

2.3 "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items: information (regardless of 16 17 how it is generated, stored, or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for 18 protection under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c), and as specified above in 19 the Good Cause Statement.

20 2.4 Counsel: Outside Counsel of Record and House Counsel (as well as 21 their support staff).

Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information 22 2.5or items that it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as 23 24 "CONFIDENTIAL."

Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless 25 2.626 of the medium or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, 27 among other things, testimony, transcripts, and tangible things), that are produced 28 or generated in disclosures or responses to discovery in this matter.

Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter 1 2.7 pertinent to the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as 2 3 an expert witness or as a consultant in this Action.

4 2.8House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a party to this Action. House Counsel does not include Outside Counsel of Record or any other outside 6 counsel.

7 2.9 Non-Party: any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, 8 or other legal entity not named as a Party to this action.

9 Outside Counsel of Record: attorneys who are not employees of a 2.10 10 party to this Action but are retained to represent or advise a party to this Action and have appeared in this Action on behalf of that party or are affiliated with a law firm 11 which has appeared on behalf of that party, including support staff. 12

13 Party: any party to this Action, including all of its officers, directors, 2.11 employees, consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel of Record (and their 14 15 support staffs).

Producing Party: a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or 16 2.12 17 Discovery Material in this Action.

18 2.13 Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation 19 support services (e.g., photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits or demonstrations, and organizing, storing, or retrieving data in any form or medium) 20 21 and their employees and subcontractors.

2.14 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is 22 23 designated as "CONFIDENTIAL."

24 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery 2.15 25 Material from a Producing Party.

3. SCOPE

The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only Protected Material (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from Protected Material; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of Protected Material; and (3) any testimony, conversations, or presentations by Parties or their Counsel that might reveal Protected Material.

Any use of Protected Material at trial shall be governed by the orders of the trial judge. This Order does not govern the use of Protected Material at trial.

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

4. DURATION

Even after final disposition of this litigation, the confidentiality obligations 11 imposed by this Order shall remain in effect until a Designating Party agrees 12 13 otherwise in writing or a court order otherwise directs. Final disposition shall be deemed to be the later of (1) dismissal of all claims and defenses in this Action, with 14 or without prejudice; and (2) final judgment herein after the completion and 15 exhaustion of all appeals, rehearings, remands, trials, or reviews of this Action, 16 17 including the time limits for filing any motions or applications for extension of time 18 pursuant to applicable law.

5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. 21 5.1 Each Party or Non-Party that designates information or items for protection under 22 23 this Order must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate standards. The Designating Party must designate for 24 protection only those parts of material, documents, items, or oral or written 25 communications that qualify so that other portions of the material, documents, 26 27 items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept 28 unjustifiably within the ambit of this Order.

Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily encumber the case development process or to impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the Designating Party to sanctions.

If it comes to a Designating Party's attention that information or items that it designated for protection do not qualify for protection, that Designating Party must promptly notify all other Parties that it is withdrawing the inapplicable designation.

9 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in 10 this Order (see, e.g., second paragraph of Section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise
11 stipulated or ordered, Disclosure or Discovery Material that qualifies for protection 12 under this Order must be clearly so designated before the material is disclosed or 13 produced.

14

2

3

4

5

6

7

Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

(a) for information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic documents, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), that the Producing Party affix at a minimum, the legend
"CONFIDENTIAL" (hereinafter "CONFIDENTIAL legend"), to each page that contains protected material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents available for inspection need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has indicated which documents it would like copied and produced. During the inspection and before the designation, all of the material made available for inspection shall be deemed "CONFIDENTIAL." After the inspecting Party has identified the documents it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party must determine which documents, or portions thereof, qualify for protection under this Order. Then, before producing the specified documents, the Producing Party must affix the "CONFIDENTIAL legend" to each page that contains Protected Material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

(b) for testimony given in depositions that the Designating Party identify the Disclosure or Discovery Material on the record, before the close of the deposition all protected testimony.

9 (c) for information produced in some form other than documentary and 10 for any other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on 11 the exterior of the container or containers in which the information is stored the 12 legend "CONFIDENTIAL." If only a portion or portions of the information 13 warrants protection, the Producing Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the 14 protected portion(s).

5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the Designating Party's right to secure protection under this Order for such material.
Upon timely correction of a designation, the Receiving Party must make reasonable efforts to assure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

22

6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge a designation of confidentiality at any time that is consistent with the Court's Scheduling Order.

6.2 Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute resolution process under Civil Local Rule 251 et seq.

28

6.3 The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on the Designating Party. Frivolous challenges, and those made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties), may expose the Challenging Party to sanctions. Unless the Designating Party has waived or withdrawn the confidentiality designation, all parties shall continue to afford the material in question the level of protection to which it is entitled under the Producing Party's designation until the Court rules on the challenge.

7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

10 7.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is disclosed or produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with 11 this Action only for prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this Action. 12 13 Such Protected Material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and 14 under the conditions described in this Order. When the Action has been terminated, a Receiving Party must comply with the provisions of Section 13 below 15 (FINAL DISPOSITION). 16

Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at 18 a location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the 19 persons authorized under this Order.

20 7.2 Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a 21 information 22 Receiving disclose any item Party may or designated "CONFIDENTIAL" only to: 23

24 (a) the Receiving Party's Outside Counsel of Record in this Action, as 25 well as employees of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this Action; 26

27 (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including House Counsel) of 28 the Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action;

7

(d) the Court and its personnel;

(e) court reporters and their staff;

"Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A);

(f) professional jury or trial consultants, mock jurors, and Professional Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A); disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action and who have signed the

(c) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom

9 (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a 10 custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information;

(h) during their depositions, witnesses, and attorneys for witnesses, in 11 the Action to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary provided: (1) the deposing 12 13 party requests that the witness sign the form attached as Exhibit A hereto; and (2) they will not be permitted to keep any confidential information unless they sign the 14 "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A), unless otherwise 15 agreed by the Designating Party or ordered by the Court. Pages of transcribed 16 17 deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected Material may 18 be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except 19 as permitted under this Stipulated Protective Order; and

(i) any mediator or settlement officer, and their supporting personnel, mutually agreed upon by any of the parties engaged in settlement discussions.

- 22
- 23

24

8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER LITIGATION

If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this Action as "CONFIDENTIAL," that Party must:

28

(a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification shall include a copy of the subpoena or court order;

(b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is subject to this Protective Order. Such notification shall include a copy of this Stipulated Protective Order; and

5

1

2

(c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by the Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected.

8 If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with 9 the subpoena or court order shall not produce any information designated in this action as "CONFIDENTIAL" before a determination by the court from which the 10 subpoena or order issued, unless the Party has obtained the Designating Party's 11 permission. The Designating Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking 12 13 protection in that court of its confidential material, and nothing in these provisions should be construed as authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this Action 14 to disobey a lawful directive from another court. 15

18

9. A NON-PARTY'S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE PRODUCED IN THIS LITIGATION

(a) The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a Non-Party in this Action and designated as "CONFIDENTIAL." Such information produced by Non-Parties in connection with this litigation is protected by the remedies and relief provided by this Order. Nothing in these provisions should be construed as prohibiting a Non-Party from seeking additional protections.

(b) In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery request, to produce a Non-Party's confidential information in its possession, and the Party is subject to an agreement with the Non-Party not to produce the Non-Party's confidential information, then the Party shall:

28

(1) promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-Party that some or all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality agreement with a Non-Party;

(2) promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the StipulatedProtective Order in this Action, the relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonablyspecific description of the information requested; and

(3) make the information requested available for inspection by the Non-Party, if requested.

8 (c) If the Non-Party fails to seek a protective order from this Court within 9 14 days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the Receiving Party may produce the Non-Party's confidential information responsive to the discovery 10 request. If the Non-Party timely seeks a protective order, the Receiving Party shall 11 not produce any information in its possession or control that is subject to the 12 13 confidentiality agreement with the Non-Party before a determination by the Court. Absent a court order to the contrary, the Non-Party shall bear the burden and 14 15 expense of seeking protection in this Court of its Protected Material.

10.UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

18 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed 19 Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this Stipulated Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in 20 writing the Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts 21 22 to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the Protected Material, (c) inform the person 23 or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this 24 Order, and (d) request such person or persons to execute the "Acknowledgment and 25 Agreement to Be Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

11.INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED MATERIAL

When a Producing Party gives notice to Receiving Parties that certain inadvertently produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the Receiving Parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil This provision is not intended to modify whatever Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). procedure may be established in an e-discovery order that provides for production without prior privilege review. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d) and (e), insofar as the parties reach an agreement on the effect of disclosure of a communication or information covered by the attorney-client privilege or work product protection, the parties may incorporate their agreement in the stipulated protective order submitted to the Court.

12.MISCELLANEOUS

Right to Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any person 15 12.1 to seek its modification by the Court in the future. 16

17

Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this 12.2 18 Protective Order, no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to 19 disclosing or producing any information or item on any ground not addressed in this Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on any 20 21 ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by this Protective Order.

22

Filing Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any 12.3 23 Protected Material must comply with Civil Local Rule 141. Protected Material may 24 only be filed under seal pursuant to a court order authorizing the sealing of the 25 specific Protected Material at issue. If a Party's request to file Protected Material under seal is denied by the court, then the Receiving Party may file the information 26 27 in the public record unless otherwise instructed by the court.

28

13.FINAL DISPOSITION

2 After the final disposition of this Action, as defined in Section 4 3 (DURATION), within 60 days of a written request by the Designating Party, each Receiving Party must return all Protected Material to the Producing Party or destroy 4 5 such material. As used in this subdivision, "all Protected Material" includes all copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries, and any other format reproducing or 6 7 capturing any of the Protected Material. Whether the Protected Material is returned 8 or destroyed, the Receiving Party must submit a written certification to the 9 Producing Party (and, if not the same person or entity, to the Designating Party) by 10 the 60 day deadline that (1) identifies (by category, where appropriate) all the Protected Material that was returned or destroyed; and (2) affirms that the Receiving 11 Party has not retained any copies, abstracts, compilations, summaries, or any other 12 13 format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected Material. Notwithstanding this 14 provision, Counsel are entitled to retain an archival copy of all pleadings, motion 15 papers, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, legal memoranda, correspondence, 16 deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant 17 and expert work product, even if such materials contain Protected Material. Any 18 such archival copies that contain or constitute Protected Material remain subject to 19 this Protective Order as set forth in Section 4 (DURATION). To the extent the Parties are required by law to retain copies of Protected Materials in their Claim 20 21 Files, such Protected Material shall remain subject to this Protective order as set 22 forth in Section 4.
