UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

GREGORY SCOTT VAN HUISEN, Plaintiff,
v.
JOSEPH R. BIDEN, et al.,
Defendants.

No. 2:23-cv-00944-DJC-EFB (PC)

ORDER AND FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Plaintiff is a state prisoner proceeding without counsel in this action brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. On August 10, 2023, the court dismissed plaintiff’s complaint with leave to amend. ECF No. 20. Plaintiff has filed an amended complaint, which is before the court for screening. ECF No. 23. Plaintiff has also filed a request “for correction” seeking to correct a legal citation in his earlier filing (ECF No. 25), a motion for appointment of counsel (ECF No. 26), and a motion to advance hearing date (ECF No. 29).

Motion for Appointment of Counsel

District courts lack authority to require counsel to represent indigent prisoners in § 1983 cases. Mallard v. United States Dist. Court, 490 U.S. 296, 298 (1989). In exceptional circumstances, the court may request an attorney to voluntarily to represent such a plaintiff. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(1); Terrell v. Brewer, 935 F.2d 1015, 1017 (9th Cir. 1991); Wood v. Housewright, 900 F.2d 1332, 1335-36 (9th Cir. 1990). When determining whether “exceptional circumstances” exist, the court must consider the likelihood of success on the merits as well as the

1 ability of the plaintiff to articulate his claims pro se in light of the complexity of the legal issues
2 involved. Palmer v. Valdez, 560 F.3d 965, 970 (9th Cir. 2009). Having considered those factors, 3 the court finds there are no exceptional circumstances in this case.

4 Screening Standards

5 Notwithstanding payment of the filing fee, the court must screen plaintiff's complaint in 6 accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(a). The court must identify cognizable claims or dismiss the 7 complaint, or any portion of the complaint, if the complaint "is frivolous, malicious, or fails to 8 state a claim upon which relief may be granted," or "seeks monetary relief from a defendant who 9 is immune from such relief." Id. § 1915A(b).

10 A pro se plaintiff, like other litigants, must satisfy the pleading requirements of Rule 8(a) 11 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Rule 8(a)(2) "requires a complaint to include a short and 12 plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief, in order to give the 13 defendant fair notice of what the claim is and the grounds upon which it rests." Bell Atl. Corp. v.
14 Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 554, 562-563 (2007) (citing Conley v. Gibson, 355 U.S. 41 (1957)).
15 While the complaint must comply with the "short and plain statement" requirements of Rule 8, 16 its allegations must also include the specificity required by Twombly and Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 17 U.S. 662, 679 (2009).

18 To avoid dismissal for failure to state a claim a complaint must contain more than "naked 19 assertions," "labels and conclusions" or "a formulaic recitation of the elements of a cause of 20 action." Twombly, 550 U.S. at 555-557. In other words, "[t]hreadbare recitals of the elements of 21 a cause of action, supported by mere conclusory statements do not suffice." Iqbal, 556 U.S. at 22 678.

23 Furthermore, a claim upon which the court can grant relief must have facial plausibility.
24 Twombly, 550 U.S. at 570. "A claim has facial plausibility when the plaintiff pleads factual 25 content that allows the court to draw the reasonable inference that the defendant is liable for the 26 misconduct alleged." Iqbal, 556 U.S. at 678. When considering whether a complaint states a 27 claim upon which relief can be granted, the court must accept the allegations as true, Erickson v.
28 Pardus, 551 U.S. 89 (2007), and construe the complaint in the light most favorable to the

1 plaintiff, see Scheuer v. Rhodes, 416 U.S. 232, 236 (1974).

2 Discussion

3 In screening plaintiff's original complaint, the court noted that its "extravagant allegations
4 are largely incoherent and read as a list of conclusory terms and meandering phrases strung 5 together." ECF No. 20. Plaintiff has not cured this fatal defect in his amended complaint. For 6 example, Claim I, which is representative of plaintiff's other claims, reads as follows:

7 Consider Brandeis brief, color of state law/Erie Doctrine cause of action; Isiah 8 59:5. They hatch vipers eggs and weave the spiders web. He who eats of their 9 eggs dies and that which is crushed a viper breaks out. This is not a threadbare 10 recital, it is their strategy & reward for cruelty. "The venom that the cobra spits is 11 cruelty." Line #14-18 then Isiah 59:5. Election contest, 2020 presidential election
12 – cause of action (U.S. 525 316 1999) D.O.C. U.S. Supreme Court. Keyword 13 "mal-apportioned." Reprisal, its origin for past civil rights victories, then spit in 14 the proceedings of D.O.C. vs. Supreme Ct. This beginning of a division such as 15 Omerta; raising a wall of segregation – foresight of the cobra. Election contest 16 2019-2020 election as part of civil conspiracy and new wave of imperialism.
17 [Illegible] to a unallowed augmented census count, the election went in the 18 direction of, note: "Prudence, indeed, will dictate that governments long 19 established should not be changed for light and transient cases; and according all 20 experience hath shown, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are 21 sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are 22 accustomed." (Declaration of Independence) [illegible] adult covid, election. Our 23 freedom was abridged. Revolutionary document, bringing conciliation.

24 ECF No. 23 at 3. The amended complaint remains as incomprehensible as the original and again
25 fails to specify how any particular defendant was involved in violating plaintiff's federal statutory 26 or constitutional rights. As the original complaint, the amended complaint presents no cognizable 27 federal claim.

28 A complaint that is frivolous, malicious, or fails to state a claim cannot survive screening under section 1915A(b) and must be dismissed. A claim is frivolous "when the facts alleged arise to the level of the irrational or the wholly incredible, whether or not there are judicially noticeable facts available to contradict them." Denton v. Hernandez, 504 U.S. 25, 33 (1992); see also Neitzke v. Williams, 490 U.S. 319, 325 (1989) (holding that "§ 1915(d)'s term 'frivolous,' when applied to a complaint, embraces not only the inarguable legal conclusion, but also the fanciful factual allegation."). Plaintiff's allegations are indecipherable and, as currently drafted, frivolous.

Despite notice of the deficiencies in the complaint and an opportunity to amend, plaintiff is unable to state a claim upon which relief could be granted. The court finds that further leave to

1 amend is not warranted. See Plumeau v. School Dist. # 40, 130 F.3d 432, 439 (9th Cir. 1997)
2 (denial of leave to amend appropriate where further amendment would be futile).

3 Order and Recommendation

4 Accordingly, it is ORDERED that:

- 5 1. Plaintiff's motion for the appointment of counsel (ECF Nos. 26) is DENIED; and
- 6 2. Plaintiff's motion for correction (ECF No. 25) is GRANTED, and the court has 7 considered the correction in making the orders and recommendations herein.

8 It is further RECOMMENDED that this action be dismissed for failure to state a claim 9 upon which relief could be granted and that plaintiff's outstanding "motion to advance the 10 hearing date" (ECF No. 29) and "request for review" (ECF No. 32) be denied as moot.

11 These findings and recommendations are submitted to the United States District Judge 12 assigned to the case, pursuant to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). Within fourteen days 13 after being served with these findings and recommendations, any party may file written 14 objections with the court and serve a copy on all parties. Such a document should be captioned 15 "Objections to Magistrate Judge's Findings and Recommendations." Failure to file objections 16 within the specified time may waive the right to appeal the District Court's order. Turner v.
17 Duncan, 158 F.3d 449, 455 (9th Cir. 1998); Martinez v. Ylst, 951 F.2d 1153 (9th Cir. 1991).
