JOINT STIPULATION ON EXTENSION OF TIME FOR DEFENDANT, XL CATLIN
 LLOYD'S SYNDICATE XLC
 2003, TO RESPOND TO COMPLAINT; ORDER

Hon. Allison Claire Courtroom
 26, 8th Floor

Action Filed: August 29, 2024
 Trial Date: None set

1 Defendant, XL Catlin Lloyd's Syndicate 2003 ("XL Catlin"), and Plaintiff,
2 PacifiCorp, by and through their respective counsel, hereby jointly stipulate to allow
3 XL Catlin additional time to respond to the Complaint and request this Court enter
4 an order allowing XL Catlin 10 days to file a response to the operative complaint in
5 this action once this Court has issued an order on the Motion to Remand. As 6 grounds in support thereof, the Parties state as follows:

- 7 1. The operative complaint names, amongst other parties, XL Catlin Lloyd's
8 Syndicate 2003 as a defendant. [Dkt. 1 at Exh. 1]
- 9 2. XL Catlin's inclusion as a defendant is premised on alleged subscription
10 to Commercial Umbrella Liability Policy No. CSUSA2101704 (the 11 "Policy"). [Id. at ¶ 76]
- 12 3. XL Catlin, however, is not a party to the Policy for US risks, a fact which, 13 both parties have agreed to be the case.
- 14 4. PacifiCorp has filed a Motion to Remand [Dkt. 46] which includes an 15 amended complaint. [Id. at Exh. B] The amended complaint removes XL
16 Catlin as a defendant from the action and, in their place, names other
17 subscribing syndicates to the Policy.
- 18 5. The Motion to Remand is currently pending before the Court.
- 19 6. By virtue of the amended complaint, XL Catlin Syndicate 2003 will no
20 longer be a party to this action and, therefore, would not have to submit a
21 responsive pleading.
- 22 7. Based on the foregoing, the Parties stipulate XL Catlin shall have 10 days
23 to file a response to the operative complaint in this action once this Court
24 has issued an order on the Motion to Remand, to the extent a response is 25 necessary from XL Catlin.
- 26 8. In the event the Court does not issue an order remanding the case, XL
27 Catlin shall have 10 days from that decision to respond to the operative

1 complaint.

2 The parties certify the extension is not requested, or stipulated hereto, for 3 purposes of delay.
