224:6-18	Testimony regarding interview done in connection with 1999 security review is irrelevant and prejudicial because it post-dates the Parabe incident. As MacLeod makes clear, the concern arose because of the deteriorating security situation in the Niger Delta, which included Jaw hostage takings and the Ijaw/Maje crisis that plaintiffs have continuously tried to exclude. See Dep. 224:21-225:3. It would mislead the jury and be unduly prejudicial. FRE 401-403. Deponent lacks personal knowledge of statements from interviewee; hearsay. FRE 602, 802.	The security review was not focused on post Parabe conditions in the Niger Delta, but was rather a generic review of CNL's use of the GSF across time. Many comments from CNL staff involved incidents occurring pre-Parabe.
