Re: Lavita Oliver
Case No. CO4 2305

Your Honor:

The above named person has been a patient of mine for several years. Most recently I have treated her for a post-traumatic stress disorder in relation to being a witness to her brothers death in the hands of a police officer who had been assaulted by him.

She has asked me to contact you in regard to her difficulty in getting adequate legal assistance and the recurring anxiety that emerges in her when the issues are brought up in the courtroom. In essence, she feels that she cannot continue the legal process and wants it terminated.

If the Court chooses to proceed in that manner and it is legally correct, I believe she will manage without psychological harm.

Sincerely Yours

Alan F. Scott M. D.
