- 24 INC.), is a corporation with its principal place of business in California, and
- 25 conducting substantial business in San Francisco, California, which is in the
- 26 business of making web sites for law firms.
- 27 2. Defendant LEXISNEXIS is the parent company of MARTINDALE-HUBBELL
- 28 which entered into an agreement with Inherent, Inc., to purchase Inherent, Inc.,

1 for a total sum of $780,000.00 plus hiring key employees under contracts which 2 offered long-term employment to the employees. LEXISNEXIS performs 3 substantial business in California, and is licensed to practice business therein.
4

5 3. The true names and capacities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or 6 otherwise of Defendants does 1 through 200, inclusive, are unknown to Plaintiff 7 who therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names. Upon their 8 discovery, Plaintiff will amend his complaint to show their names and capacities.

9 4. At all times herein mentioned, each of the Defendants named as Doe was, and still 10 is, legally responsible in some manner for the events and happenings herein 11 referred to, and proximately caused all injuries and damages to Plaintiff as 12 alleged.

13 5. At all times herein mentioned, Defendants and each of them, were the agents 14 servants or employees of each other and were acting within the course and scope 15 of their agency and employment.
16

17 6. A contract was entered into whereby Inherent, Inc., would be purchased by 18 LEXISNEXIS/MARTINDALE-HUBBELL for the sum of $780,000.00.

19 7. The terms of the contract were that a due diligence period would take place, after 20 which all contingencies would be removed and the contract would be confirmed.

21 8. Pursuant to the attached chronology, set forth in the letter drafted to 22 LEXISNEXIS/MARTINDALE-HUBBELL and written by the Law Firm of 23 Patrick E. Catalano, attached hereto as Exhibit A, the contingencies were removed 24 on June 16, 2005. After removing these contingencies,
25 LEXISNEXIS/MARTINDALE-HUBBELL sent nine employees to Portland, 26 Oregon, the then principle place of business for Inherent, Inc., to look through the 27 financial records, client contracts, programming source code, network operations, 28 and all other relevant information.

1 9. LEXISNEXIS/MARTINDALE-HUBBELL states that no firm contract existed,
