UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
 FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

TASH HEPTING, GREGORY HICKS,
 CAROLYN JEWEL and ERIK KNUTZEN, on Behalf of Themselves and All Others Similarly Situated,,

 Plaintiffs,

 v.
 AT&T CORP., et al.,

 Defendants.

No. C-06-0672-VRW
CLASS ACTION
DECLARATION OF CAROLYN JEWEL IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION
 Courtroom: 6, 17th Floor
 Judge: Hon. Vaughn Walker

1 I, Carolyn Jewel, hereby declare:

2 1. I am a plaintiff in this action, and I reside in Petaluma, California. I am a database
3 administrator and author, and also take and teach classes at a local university. I have personal
4 knowledge of the matters stated in this declaration and if called upon to do so, I could and would 5 competently testify thereto.

6 2. I have been a subscriber and user of AT&T Corp.'s Worldnet dial-up Internet
7 service ("Worldnet service") since approximately June 2000.

8 3. I use the Worldnet dial-up service in my home. I use it nearly every day.

9 4. I use the Worldnet service for web browsing and to send and receive email. I use the 10 Worldnet service to engage in correspondence with individuals in foreign countries, including 11 England, Germany and Indonesia, as well as correspondence with individuals in the United States.

12 5. I use the Worldnet service to send correspondence and engage in activities that I 13 expect to remain private, such as personal correspondence, banking, family matters, medical 14 matters of concern to me and my family, correspondence with students, fellow-students and 15 professors, and discussions regarding my published and in progress writing with my literary agent,
16 editors, other authors and fans.

17 6. Since June 2000, I have sent and received emails from persons who are not 18 customers of the Worldnet service, as well as those who are customers of the Worldnet service and,
19 to the best of my knowledge, those emails have traveled on the Worldnet service network.

20 7. I expected that my emails and other communications conducted through the 21 Worldnet service would remain private and would not be subjected to any form of government
22 surveillance. I have never knowingly consented to any government surveillance of my 23 communications sent through or using the Worldnet service.

24 8. Since I learned of the government's domestic eavesdropping program and AT&T's
25 involvement in it, I have been concerned about the privacy of my communications. This concern
26 has led me to question my use of the Worldnet service, including how, whether and/or the manner
27 in which I respond to individuals via email, and my use of the Worldnet service to search for or 28 disseminate information through the Internet. For example, with regard to an email correspondent

1 in Indonesia who is Muslim, I have not openly responded to his queries about my understanding of
2 Islam as practiced in Bali or queried him about his opinions of the current tensions regarding the
3 United States' actions in Iraq even though I would be quite interested to know his thoughts.

4 9. In addition, I have recently begun to write in a new genre (action and futuristic
5 romance) and I feel that certain plots or subplots that would otherwise be of significant interest to 6 me, may be unwise since they would require research into weapons, arms and military and 7 paramilitary operations. As a result, I do not plan to use my Worldnet service to do this research.

8 10. Had I known of the government's domestic eavesdropping program and AT&T's
9 involvement in it sooner, I would have reduced my use of the Worldnet service sooner and/or 10 curtailed the scope and subject matter of my internet searches sooner.

11 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States that the foregoing is 12 true and correct. Executed this 21st day of March, 2006, at Petaluma, California.
