RE: NFB v. Target, Case No. C-06-01802 MHP

Dear Judge Patel:

Pursuant to the Court's order at the status conference held in this case on December 10, 2007, the parties met and conferred regarding the form of notice to the class, and have agreed upon the notice attached hereto as Exhibit A. Plaintiffs have retained RG2 Claims Administration, LLP as third-party notice administrator. Defendant has agreed to this selection.

Further, attached hereto as Exhibit B is Plaintiffs' proposed distribution list for the notice. Plaintiffs' plan for distribution is to use best efforts to send the notice by email (to those recipients whose email addresses are available) or U.S. Mail to the recipients on the distribution list attached hereto as Exhibit B, with a request that the recipients post the notice for public review. Notice will be sent out within approximately 5 days of when the case website, www.NFBtargetlawsuit.com, is up and running. Plaintiffs request that the Court allow Plaintiffs until February 1, 2008 to have the website up and running.

Plaintiffs will instruct the third-party notice administrator to insert a date certain for the opt-out deadline in the notice of 70 days from when notice is emailed/mailed to the recipients (60 days, plus 10 days for recipients to post the notice).

Plaintiffs will monitor the distribution/posting process, and will take prompt action to notify the parties and/or the Court of any irregularities or concerns.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'RH', with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

Roger Heller
Class Counsel
