27 AND [PROPOSED] ORDER

28 Date: February 5, 2009

Time: 10:30 a.m.

Judge: Honorable Susan Illston

25 The government hereby moves the Court for an order granting leave to the United States
26 to file an oversized brief in this matter in opposition to the defendant's Motion In Limine To 27 Exclude Evidence. The government's Opposition to Defendant's Motion In Limine To Exclude 28 Evidence is 53 pages. The reason for this request is that the defendant's motion seeks to exclude

1 a voluminous amount of evidence based upon multiple legal theories. Indeed, the defendant also 2 required this Court's permission to exceed the page limit on its original motion in order to cover
3 all of the challenged evidence. In order to address all of the defense arguments and respond in a 4 complete and thorough manner, the United States has had to set forth all of the challenged
5 evidence along with the various bases for admissibility for each piece of evidence. That 6 presentation and analysis requires a lengthy brief in opposition to the defense motion.
