Declarations Before Grand Jury; 18 U.S.C. §
1503 – Obstruction of Justice
SAN FRANCISCO VENUE

SUPERSEDING INDICTMENT

The Grand Jury charges:

Background

At all times relevant to this Indictment:

1. The defendant, BARRY LAMAR BONDS (“Bonds”), was a Major League Baseball player for the San Francisco Giants.
2. Balco Laboratories, Inc. (“Balco”), was a California corporation performing blood-testing, among other functions. Balco was located in Burlingame, California.
3. Greg Anderson (“Anderson”) was a personal athletic trainer whose clients included numerous professional athletes, including Bonds. Anderson was affiliated with Balco

1 in that, among other things, he: obtained illegal drugs for later distribution to his clients
2 (including professional athletes); submitted biological specimens from his clients to Balco for
3 testing (including sending the specimens off to outside laboratories for analysis); and obtained
4 the laboratory analysis results of those specimens from Balco.

5 4. A federal criminal investigation (“the criminal investigation”), led by the Internal 6 Revenue Service-Criminal Investigation Division (“IRS-CID”), commenced in the Northern
7 District of California concerning Balco’s distribution of anabolic steroids and other illegal
8 performance-enhancing drugs and the related money laundering of proceeds from the drug
9 distributions. The criminal investigation initially resulted in an indictment and the convictions of 10 four defendants on federal charges, including illegal drug distribution and money laundering
11 offenses.

12 5. One focus of the criminal investigation was whether Balco, Anderson, and others
13 were engaged in illegal drug distribution and money laundering arising from illegal distributions
14 of drugs to professional athletes and others.

15 6. As part of the criminal investigation, on or about September 3, 2003, a federal
16 search warrant, issued in the Northern District of California, was executed at the Balco premises
17 in Burlingame, California. As well as other evidence, investigators obtained evidence that Bonds
18 had a relationship with Anderson and Balco.

19 7. As part of the criminal investigation, several professional athletes, including but 20 not limited to Bonds, and other witnesses, were subpoenaed to appear before the Federal Grand
21 Jury to provide testimony about their knowledge and involvement with Balco and its employees,
22 including but not limited to Victor Conte and James Valente, as well as any relationship they had 23 with Anderson.

24 8. On or about December 4, 2003, Bonds testified before the Grand Jury. Bonds
25 received an Order of Immunity for his Grand Jury testimony, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 6003 and 26 28 C.F.R. § 0.175, and was informed that pursuant to that order neither his testimony nor any 27 information directly or indirectly derived from his testimony could be used against him in any
28 criminal case except in a prosecution for perjury, false declaration, or otherwise failing to comply

1 with the Court's order.

2 9. During the criminal investigation, evidence was obtained including positive tests
3 for the presence of anabolic steroids and other performance-enhancing substances for Bonds and 4 other professional athletes.

13 underlined false testimony:

14 Q: I know the answer - - let me ask you this again. I know we kind of got into this.
15 Let me be real clear about this. Did he [Anderson] ever give you anything that you knew
16 to be a steroid? Did he ever give a steroid?

17 A: I don't think Greg would do anything like that to me and jeopardize our 18 friendship. I just don't think he would do that.

19 Q: Well, when you say you don't think he would do that, to your knowledge, I mean,

7 these two listed anabolic steroids as testing positive in connection with it. Do you follow
8 my question?

9 A: I follow where you're going, yeah.

10 Q: So, I guess I got to ask the question again, I mean, did you take steroids? And 11 specifically this test the is in November of 2000. So, I'm going to ask you in the weeks
12 and months leading up to November 2000, were you taking steroids - -

3 Q: Correct.

4 But BB would also be your initials; is that correct?

11 A: I've only had one doctor touch me. And that's my only personal doctor.

12 Greg, like I said, we don't get into each others' personal lives. We're friends, but I don't 13 – we don't sit around and talk baseball, because he knows I don't want – don't come to 14 my house talking baseball. If you want to come to my house and talk about fishing, some 15 other stuff, we'll be good friends. You come around talking about baseball, you go on. I
16 don't talk about his business. You know what I mean?

17 *****

23 Q: So - -

24 A: So sorry.

7 Q: Let me ask the same question about Greg at this point, we'll go into this in a little
8 bit more detail, but did you ever get anything else from Greg besides advice or tips on 9 your weight lifting and also the vitamins and the proteins that you already referenced?

10 A: This year, in 2003 - - at the end of 2002, 2003 season, when I was going through -
11 - my dad died of cancer, you know, and everyone knows that.

12 Q: Yes. I'm sorry about that.

13 A: And everyone tries to give me everything. You got companies that provide us
14 with more junk to try than anything. And you know that as well.

15 I was fatigued, tired, just needed recovery, you know. And this guy says: "Try
16 this cream, try this cream." And Greg came to the ballpark and he said, you know: "This 17 will help you recover," and he rubbed some cream on my arm, like, some lotion-type
18 stuff, and, like, gave me some flax seed oil, that's what he called it, called it some flax
19 seed oil, man. It's, like: "Whatever, dude."

20 And I was at the ballpark, whatever, I don't care. What's lotion going to do to 21 me? How many times have I heard that: "This is going to rub into you and work." Let

7 having taken an oath to testify truthfully in a proceeding before a Grand Jury sitting in the 8 Northern District of California, knowingly made a false material declaration, that is, he gave the 9 following underlined false testimony:

10 Q: And - - all right. So, how many times approximately do you think you got these 11 tubes with what Mr. Anderson told you was flax seed oil?

12 A: Maybe once a home stand or something, if that. Greg didn't travel with me on the 13 road. So, I was at home, when I came home.

14 Q: And the first time was the beginning of this year's season, in 2003?

15 A: Yes, 2003, because I was battling with the problems with my father and the - - just

4 Q: I'm asking --
5 A: No.

25 again exactly when you started getting the - - what I'll call the recovery items, what you
26 understood to be flax seed oil and the cream, when you started getting that from Greg 27 Anderson. I think that you said - - but please correct me if I'm wrong - - that you thought
28 it was prior to this current baseball season.

1 But let me ask, I mean, is it possible it's actually a year before, after the 2000 - -
2 well, actually two years before, after the 2001 season? Because this first calendar is dated
3 December 2001 with "BB" on it and its got a number of entries that I'd like to ask you
4 about.

5 Were you getting items during that period of time from Greg?

6 A: No. Like I said, I don't recall having anything like this at all during that time of 7 year. It was toward the end of 2000, after the World Series, you know, when my father
